Sleeping Sickness Toll Mounts to 16 Lives

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 22.—(AP)—The death of an elderly woman, reported late today, sent the total for the epidemic of "sleeping sickness" to 16—about one out of every 11 cases.

Mrs. Fidelia Walker, 78, of St. Louis, died yesterday, but her illness was not diagnosed as encephalitis until an autopsy was performed today.

The number of reported cases rose to 182 today, including 145 from St. Louis county and 37 from the city of St. Louis.

An intensive study of the disease is under way, Dr. Paul Zentay, assistant city health commissioner, said tonight.

WOMAN MURDERS HUSBAND, MOTHER, ENDS OWN LIFE

Triple Tragedy Blamed on Despondency Over Illness and Fear of Approaching Death.

GAINESVILLE, Ga., Aug. 22.—(AP) Racked with the pains of arthritis and despondent over failure to find relief, Mrs. Lena Wilson Palmour killed her husband, E. C. Palmour, prominent businessman, and her mother, Mrs. Fannie Wilson, in their sleep and fatally shot herself.

He was killed instantly with a bullet in his head. Then Mrs. Palmour went to her mother's bedroom, shot her through the arm and brain and then fired a bullet into her own head.

The neighbors heard the mother, 84 years old, scream after the first shot was fired. They surmized that bullet penetrated her arm and she cried out in trying to escape. In a moment they heard another shot and all was still thereafter.

Friends of the family said Mrs. Palmour had suffered with arthritis for a long time and the pain and despondency had affcted her mind. She was 58 years old.

There were indications the tragedy came after long contemplation. Three notes the ill woman left directed that her body and that of her mother be sent to Georgetown, Ky., for burial. However, there was intimation she did not originally intend to kill her husband.

She wrote of her dread that the affliction would increase and expressed fear for the future comfort of her mother, who had lived with her many years, after the disease proved fatal.

Several weeks ago, neighbors recalled, she complained to her husband, 60-year-old founder and former president of a big Gainesville department store, that a negro had attempted to force his way into their apartment and asked that she be given a pistol for protection. A 32-caliber revolver he gave her was the weapon she used today.

For 20 years Palmour was head of the firm of W. J. & E. C. Palmour, one of the biggest stores in northeast Georgia. More recently he had been in the insurance business. He was prominent in religious, educational and civic affairs of the city.

His survivors are a brother, P. Ernest Palmour, of Gainesville, former state senator from the 33d district and former representative of Hall county in the legislature; two half brothers, J. Erskin Little, of Gainesville, and Claud Little, of Athens, and a half sister, Mrs. A. F. Pledger, of Athens.

Kansas City Slayings Charged to Chicagoan

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—(AP)—The federal government today revealed an affidavit that charged Louis Stacci, suburban resort operator, engineered the slaying of four peace officers in Kansas City upon a plea of Mrs. Frank Nash to "do something for her husband."

Nash, escaped convict, was slain in an exchange of shots between the officers and the men who sought to deliver Nash as he was being returned to Leavenworth penitentiary.

HOOVER DECLINES TO GIVE EVIDENCE IN BANK HEARING

Former President Refuses To Make Trip to Detroit at Request of Circuit Judge.

PALO ALTO, Cal., Aug. 22.—(UP)—Former President Herbert Hoover announced today he would not accept an invitation to appear voluntarily before a Detroit grand jury investigating closure of banks there.

In grand jury testimony, Senator James Couzens had charged the Hoover administration, convinced prosperity soon would return, had permitted banks throughout the nation to act in technical violation of the law.

In a lengthy telegram to Prosecutor Harry Toy, of Detroit, Hoover today set forth his connection wtih the Detroit situation during those days of his administration.

"Detailed and competent information as to the relation of federal authorities to the events leading to the closing of these banks can be obtained only from former officials of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, the federal reserve board, the then comptroller of the currency and from their records," the former president said.

Returning from a fishing trip, he reviewed press accounts of the Detroit investigation, then dispatched the telegram to Toy.

It was the first thing pertaining to national affairs that he had made public since his retirement from office.

"EARNEST REQUEST" SENT TO FORMER PRESIDENT

DETROIT, Aug. 22.—(AP)—The "earnest request" that Herbert Hoover come to Detroit as soon as possible to tell this city's one-man bank investigating jury of his administration's attitude in matters preceding the famous Michigan banking holiday today was sent to the former president's Palo Alto, Cal., home.

Climaxing more than two months of investigation by the jury into the state holiday February 14—preceding by several weeks the national moratorium—and an investigation of the failure of Detroit's two national banks to reopen, the request for Mr. Hoover's appearance was dispatched today by Circuit Judge Harry B. Keidan, sitting as the one-man grand jury.

Officials of the one-man bank investigating jury announced tonight that they would issue a statement tomorrow regarding what further action they would take as a result of Mr. Hoover's refusal to come to the city as a witness in the inquiry into the closing of the First National Bank-Detroit and the Guardian National Bank of Commerce.

Apprised of the former president's decision, Prosecutor Harry S. Toy and Circuit Judge Harry B. Keidan, who

Two Men Arrested In Ocean Mail Theft

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—(AP)—Federal authorities revealed tonight that two men are under arrest here for rifling a registered mail pouch on the steamer Leviathan several months ago. The pouch was reported to have contained $131,000 in Italian government bonds.

The men were arrested in Kansas City and brought here by airplane. The prisoners gave their names as James Mitchell and Al Harris, both names believed by authorities to be aliases.

Postal Inspectors J. R. McWhorter and John J. McCarthy, assigned to the case since the loss of the bonds last February, refused to reveal details on the grounds it might make apprehension of other suspects more difficult.

The bonds, reportedly consigned to the Italian government, were reported missing when the Leviathan was in mid-Atlantic on one of its trips from New York to Paris.

Blonde and Brunet Wives Traded by Army Officers

LEAVENWORTH, Kas., Aug. 22.—(AP)—The legal trading of wives—a blonde for a brunet—culminated in Arkansas by fellow army officers, was revealed today at Fort Leavenworth.

Captain William B. Bradford took the former Mrs. Stuart MacDonald, the brunet wife of a major, as his bride, in exchange for his attractive blonde wife. Major MacDonald, now on duty in a Pennsylvania conservation camp, received as a bride the blonde ex-spouse of Captain Bradford.

The romance which led to the strange trade began last winter when the two officers, Captain Bradford, of the United States cavalry, and Major MacDonald, of the infantry, were students in the command and general staff school at Fort Leavenworth.

The two wives suddenly departed for Arkansas together on a vacation. The vacation lasted just 90 days, time necessary under the Arkansas law to establish a residence for a divorce.

After three months of companionship in the same house at Bentonville the two wives appeared in court at Bentonville and were granted divorces. They were represented by the same attorney.

Just as the court freed them from their former wives, the army officers appeared on the scene without a hint of animosity. They crossed a hall in the courthouse and Fred Berry, county clerk, issued the marriage licenses which completed another step in the marital swap. Captain Bradford was then married to Mrs. MacDonald and the major to Mrs. Bradford by the same justice of the peace.

Captain Bradford is an authority on coursing meets and has competed abroad in horsemanship events. Major MacDonald, 42, a native of New York, is a graduate of West Point. Captain Bradford, 37, entered the army in 1917 from civilian life. He is a graduate of the Virginia Military Institute and the cavalry school of the French army.

Georgia Day at Chicago Celebrated Amid Pomp

Talmadge, Russell Reply to Welcome From Fair Officials—Ceremonies Attended by 5,000 Georgians, Past and Present.

By L. A. FARRELL,
Staff Correspondent.

CENTURY OF PROGRESS EXPOSITION, CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—Georgia and Chicago today joined in celebrating the bicentennial of the former and the centennial of the latter.

In the beautiful court of states, a mecca of the more than 10,000,000 people who already have visited this fair, Governor Eugene Talmadge and Senator Richard B. Russell Jr., of Georgia, extended felicitations to Chicago and the fair and in turn heard high praise for the Empire State of the South sung by Allen D. Albert, vice president of the exposition.

A crowd of more than 5,000 Georgians, former Georgians and friends witnessed the ceremonies which climaxed "Georgia Day" at the exposition. The affair was held in the ampitheater of the court, directly in front of Georgia's exhibit.

Governor Talmadge was accorded a military reception by detachments of U. S. army troops stationed on the fair grounds when he arrived at the entrance. He was given the gubernatorial salute of 17 guns.

After an inspection of the troops, the governor, escorted by his staff of 21 lieutenant colonels and a number of state officials, paraded through the grounds of the Hall of States. In the line of march was the 122nd infantry band of the Georgia national guard. The procession was headed by a troop of United States cavalry.

The program was opened by Roy LeCraw, of Atlanta, former president of the chamber of commerce and a member of the Georgia state commission to the world's fair, and in introducing the governor's corps of lieutenant colonels, all attired in white uniforms, he said:

"We brought the military along to repay a call by a chap named Sherman who marched through Georgia—but we won't leave in our wake what he did in his."

"We have just completed two centuries of progress in Georgia and are glad to see that the great city of Chicago, which has almost the same population as our state, is proud of the progress she has made in her first century," Governor Talmadge said: "Down in Georgia we are just as proudly celebrating our first 200 years and we gladly join with Chicago in her celebration. It has been a great era and the century to come will see

AL SMITH PLEADS FOR NRA SUPPORT

"Plan Must Not Fail," He Says in Urging Universal Co-operation.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—(AP)—Alfred E. Smith, in a plea tonight for "universal co-operation in a fair trial" of the national recovery movement, asserted its failure would mean digging in for a "long siege" with "slow and painful" rehabilitation.

"The plan must not fail," the former governor of New York added, "through lack of individual co-operation.

"Support of the president's plan is the only course for good citizens in a democracy when there is sickness in the body politic.

"The president has frankly stated that this is an experiment and that he will be the first to acknowledge its failure if it does not work. He asks only for loyal co-operation in trying out a plan which gives reasonable promise of success. This co-operation he certainly should receive."

In his address tonight, the former governor declared:

"There are many who honestly believe in other remedies. That is not the point. There can be only one cure at a time and the president must, like Luke in the Bible, be the great physician."

Support of the recovery program, Smith said, "commits no one to a blanket approval of objectionable methods employed here and there in this campaign."

"Do not take too seriously the excessive enthusiasm of some of those supporting the national industrial recovery act," warned the man whom Roosevelt once called "The Happy Warrior."

"Threats, intimidation, compulsion, boycotts, blacklists and suppression of opinion," he declared, "were never contemplated by the NIRA and therefore have no rightful place in this picture."

The American people can be persuaded by a patriotic appeal, Smith said; "They can be led so long as it is clear that those who lead them are in the last analysis public servants and not dictators; but they cannot be driven."

For those "who fear the experiment," the 1928 presidential candidate of the democrats had this to say:

"Do not forget that the president has only a limited congressional mandate, that the whole machinery of the

U. S. SEEKING PACT IN MILK INDUSTRY

Tentative Agreement Being Formulated To Fix Prices in All Sheds.

By SAM B. BLEDSOE.
(Copyright, 1933, by The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—(AP)—A proposed national marketing agreement for fluid milk is being drafted by farm administration officials and dairymen. It would fix minimum and maximum prices for milk and place definite limits on price spreads.

The tentative pact contemplates the establishment of prices to be paid in virtually every milk shed in the country. Some of the smaller towns, where the producer is also the distributor, may be excluded.

A maximum price spread of between 5 and 6 cents from the time milk leaves the farmer's hands until it is sold to the consumer, is expected to be laid down by the blanket agreement.

Farm administration officials feel the increase to the consumer the country over, should not average more than 1 cent a quart.

Would Aid Farmers.

The blanket agreement, if it goes into effect as expected, would increase the largest single source of farm income by millions of dollars. Out of the approximately $5,000,000,000 in agricultural income in 1932 about $1,250,000,000 came from milk and its by-products.

Under the plan there would be one central blanket agreement. It would outline general policies and fair trade practices. Supplementary codes would be written by farm administration officials in co-operation with the milk men involved for all the larger milk producing areas. These would fix the farm, wholesale and retail price of milk.

Upon acceptance of the blanket agreement by a majority of the fluid milk industry, it would become effective and a blanket license for all affected would be issued.

Subject to Change.

The arbitrary prices which would be fixed for the various areas, however, would be subject to change if proof was produced that adjustments were necessary because of conditions in a particular section.

The plan is an outgrowth of the emergency conditions faced by the producers of milk and its by-products. They have complained to the

Contest Ads Must Be Entered At Arcade Headquarters Today

By JAY ORR JR.

Since Wednesday of last week, hundreds of Atlanta's amateur ad-writers have been visiting the various stores getting their ad-writing paper and writing the advertisements which are to be entered today for the first week's prizes in the $1,300 cash prize ad-writing contest.

The stores co-operating in the ad-writing contest have found it to be of city-wide interest and report great activity on the part of contestants in calling for their free ad-writing blanks.

Official ad-writing paper may be obtained at any of the stores co-operating, any day in the week. However, the advertisements must be entered at 137 Peachtree Arcade on Wednesday. Ad-writing headquarters will open this morning at 8:30 and remain open until 6 p. m.

It is not necessary to make a purchase to get the ad-writing paper. All that you have to do is call at any of the stores, ask for it and you will be given it free. You do not have to be able to draw or paint, as you may clip illustrations from any available source. The ad-writing contest is for amateurs only and you have just as good a chance to win as anyone else.

A list of all the stores giving official ad-writing paper will be handed to each contestant asking for it at ad-writing headquarters. During Wednesday there will be an experienced ad-man at 137 Peachtree Arcade who will be glad to advise with you and show you the rudiments and principles of good advertising. Be sure to talk with him Wednesday when you make your entries for the first week's prizes. Be sure that your name and address is written plainly on the back of each advertisement you write.

The first three prize winning ads and names of the other eighteen winners will be given in the big Sunday Constitution.

THOMAS DEMANDS FEDERAL INQUIRY ON COTTON 'BEARS'

Oklahoma Senator Charges Plot To Drive Down Price of Staple by Short Selling.

U. S. WILL PLOW UP EVADERS' COTTON

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—(AP) Farm administration officials said today the government would insist upon compliance by those cotton farmers who had agreed to cut their production this year and that if necessary federal agents would see that the cotton was "plowed up."

The contracts were drawn, officials said, so that federal agents might take steps to destroy the cotton if the growers themselves failed to do so and that farmers who would not plow up their cotton would have it plowed for them.

Chester C. Davis, director of production for the farm administration, said, however, that there were only a few isolated instances in which farmers were refusing to fulfill their contracts.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—(AP)—An investigation by Attorney-General Cummings into what he termed a campaign to drive down the price of cotton through short-selling was asked today by Senator Thomas, democrat, Oklahoma.

Thomas sent to the attorney-general copies of telegrams from New York signed "International Market Forecast Bureau," and addressed to Fenner & Beane, national operating cotton brokerage house, advising short sales in cotton.

The telegrams dealt specifically with December futures. They set forth that cotton "is heading for 8-cent level." Similar messages relative to other cotton classifications have been brought to Thomas' attention.

"Sell Short."

One of the messages to Fenner & Beane, dated August 17, said:

"Buying power has spent its force. Another good break coming. Sell December short. Post on bulletin board."

Other telegrams advised brokerage houses to sell short and stay short. Thomas said a hasty check by him had failed to disclose the existence or address of the organization whose name was signed to the telegrams, but that these facts could be brought out by an official investigation.

In his letter to the attorney-general, the Oklahoman wrote:

"The administration has entered upon a program of raising commodity prices as well as the general average of prices. Much money has been appropriated and great efforts are being exerted to make this program a success.

"At the very time that the admin-

Talmadge to Testify In J. J. Mangham Trial

CHICAGO, Aug. 22—Governor Eugene Talmadge revealed here today that he plans to take the witness stand next Monday in Haralson superior court as a witness in behalf of Chairman J. J. Mangham, of the highway board, who will fight ouster proceedings filed by Captain J. W. Barnett, removed chairman of the board.

The governor said that he may visit Washington for a conference on farm product prices en route to Atlanta, but that he had not yet fully determined his course.

"If I find that I will have time to stop in Washington I will do so," he said. "However, I must be back in Georgia next week to appear as a witness at the Barnett-Mangham trial."

The ouster proceedings filed by Captain Barnett against Mr. Mangham are set for trial before a jury in the Haralson county court at Buchanan next Monday morning.

Aid for Destitute Teachers And Schools Planned by U. S.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—(AP)—A plan to use federal funds for giving unemployed school teachers work and opening rural schools which have been closed for lack of public funds was announced tonight by Harry L. Hopkins, federal emergency relief administrator.

In letters to state governors, Hopkins disclosed he has authorized state relief administrations to pay work-relief wages to teachers in rural schools to keep them open. Some teachers may be assigned in cities to instruct adults who cannot read and write English.

"I consider this kind of work relief one of the most constructive applications of the principle of exchanging service to the community for public aid," Mr. Hopkins said in a supplemental statement. "The need for relief to teachers is clearly apparent. Thirty-three states have reported through their education officials that approximately 80,000 teachers are unemployed. Some 15 states have definitely reported shortened school terms and in some districts this has meant curtailing them to the vanishing point.

"While it is most emphatically not the intention of the federal emergency relief administration to subsidize the school system in any community or to relieve school officials of their responsibility, I believe that the expenditure of work relief funds in the interest of destitute teachers will result indirectly in great community benefits.

"In many rural communities the complete closing of schools virtually means the disintegration of community life for children. No one will ever be able to make up the loss to the children who are deprived of education, for the plastic state of childhood mind comes but once.

"Where schools are closed or terms are reduced to a month or two a year, despite increased enrollment, we have a paradox. It is the expectation of

Billy Sunday Gives Up Prohibition Preaching

OMAHA, Aug. 22.—(AP)—Billy Sunday, long a fiery dry orator, will give up the preaching of prohibition, he said today as he went through Omaha bound for his ranch at Hood River, Ore. He was stricken with hay fever recently.

"I can't continue to preach prohibition and preach the Gospel," Sunday said. "I'm not as young as I used to be and the load is too heavy. So I'm returning to my first love—preaching the Gospel."

Sunday is still a firm prohibitionist, but he said he believed the 18th amendment would soon be repealed.

BLUE EAGLE DRIVE IS READY TO BRING EVERY FIRM IN NRA

Hapeville Starts Own Campaign as County Plans To Buy Only From NRA Members.

While NRA campaign leaders in Atlanta and environs were sharpening the claws of the blue eagle Tuesday in plans for a drive to sign every employer to an agreement, employment increases were reported and George F. Longino, chairman of the Fulton county commissioners, said he would ask the county government to join the city in a pledge to buy only from firms operating in the NRA.

Lines were clearly drawn for the block-to-block canvass next week by the Junior Chamber of Commerce in Atlanta, while in Hapeville the campaign groups were launched on their own drive following a meeting Monday night.

Taking his cue from the action of city council which Monday passed an ordinance that the city will buy only from Blue Eagle firms, Mr. Longino said he would ask the commission at its next meeting to take like steps, according to announcement from campaign headquarters in the Chamber of Commerce.

Employment increases continued with three large chain food store groups announcing they had added 583 new employes since adoption of an agreement. The stores are Rogers, Atlantic and Pacific and Piggly Wiggly.

Maddox Lauds City.

Commenting on the action of council in binding the city to NRA, Robert F. Maddox, general chairman of the campaign here, said it was a laudable step and in line with the desires of the administration.

Hapeville citizens selected Friday night as the time for the next meeting when all citizens will be requested to attend to map plans for a house-to-house and business-to-business campaign to sign every employer and every consumer in the NRA. Robert McCord is chairman of the Hapeville group and Mrs. Thomas Lewis was named chairman of the woman's division.

Meanwhile, Junior Chamber of Commerce members in Atlanta were tightening their forces ready for the thrust into the business section Monday in an intensive effort to sign every employer. Robert Troutman and Duncan Peek, president of the Jaycees, will direct the work.

The Jaycees will meet at 5:30 o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce this afternoon to receive further instructions in their canvass. At 12:05 o'clock Thursday they will gather at the Ansley hotel for a luncheon with Mayor Key and Robert F. Maddox, campaign chairman, scheduled as the main speakers.

Entertainment features will include a song act by the Orr sisters, noted radio team, and the mass singing of NRA songs.

Complaints Studied.

While campaign workers were laying further plans for spreading the wings of the eagle above every business house in town, many complaints were received from employes of those who already are operating under the bird. They were referred to the complaint department and where found to Administrator Tells Retailers That Those Who Trifle With NRA Bird Will Lose Symbol and World Will Know Why.

PROGRESS IS MADE TOWARD COAL CODE

Merchants Urged To Resist Unreasonable Price Advances by Jobbers To Prevent "Skyrocketing."

By JAMES P. SELVAGE.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—(AP)—Huge new reservoirs of credit for financing the recovery program within private industry are being sought by Hugh S. Johnson, the recovery administrator.

He made this known today, accompanying it with the assertion that "I do not think the commercial banking operators are functioning in this country."

A few hours before he had gone to the retail merchants of the nation at the opening of a hearing upon their code of fair competition with a stinging warning against skyrocketing prices and a promise that the practices of "chiselers and cheaters" are to be driven out of the business world.

Johnson said conferences had been held already with officials of the federal reserve board and the Reconstruction Corporation looking to providing additional credit facilities, but that no definite determination had been reached. He added that the failure of the banks to finance the industrial extension "is just a holdover from the past year or two's operations."

"I think it will loosen up if the industries show what they should in the next two or three months," he said.

Johnson said commercial banks should finance our private operations in the United States but added, "I do not believe that the figures on the advance of commercial credit indicate much loosening up of credit on the part of the banks."

"A banker in the ordinary operation of things, finances the seasonal peaks of future risk," Johnson said. "We have had a steady downward economic index in the last few years. Most of the bankers who have been taking risks have been pretty badly stung."

"Can't Force Credit.

"I do not believe anybody can force credit. You can't get expansion of credit by fiat. You have to establish this basis of faith and confidence first, and that is what we are trying as hard as we know how to do; and the trouble with the whole country

Pageants and Athletic Program To Mark Closing of Playgrounds

Young Atlanta Friday will end the play season, pack up the baseballs and bats, hang up the swimming suits for the summer and prepare for the winter time search for knowledge.

Atlanta's playgrounds on that day will close for the summer, it was announced Tuesday by Mrs. Vera Strickland, field supervisor, and Miss Kathleen Ford, supervisor of personnel.

Dancers and athletes will participate in a colorful demonstration of the season's activities, according to the program.

The affair will begin at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon at the amphitheater at Grant park and will contest until the last of the athletes have done their bit for the glory of their respective parks.

Seventeen white playgrounds will contend for supremacy during the various events at the field day exercises.

Stunts, pageants, short plays, dances and other features will be presented. Following the aesthetic renditions, the athletes will swarm onto the diamonds and tracks.

The championship baseball game will be fought out between crack nines representing Grant and Joyner parks. Brown and Howell parks will stage the battle for horseshoe-throwing supremacy. Three-legged, sack and egg races also are included, as well as a tug o' war.

Booths will line the amphitheater and will house handicraft exhibits of various parks. The booths will be decorated colorfully.

Miss Ford said Tuesday that attendance for the year has held up remarkably well during the summer and that when totals are compiled will compare favorably with last year, when the playgrounds were operated a week longer than this and when 100,000 attended.

The four negro parks will hold a field day Saturday at Washington park.

Rogers Caldwell Buys Big Tobacco Holdings

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 22.—(AP).—Purchase of 40,000,000 pounds of dark fired tobacco, representing the entire holding of the Eastern and Western Dark Fired Tobacco Growers' Associations of Tennessee and Kentucky, was announced here tonight by Rogers Caldwell, investment broker.

The purchase was made by Rogers Caldwell and Company through the newly-organized Dark Fired Tobacco Corporation, incorporated here last Saturday by Mr. Caldwell, E. A. Goodloe, and Thomas Goodloe with a capital of $3,000,000.

The Nashville Tennessean tomorrow morning will say the value of the tobacco was approximately $3,750,000, of which approximately $1,000,000 will be distributed to some 30,000 planters who are members of the two co-operative associations.

The transaction was described as the second largest single transaction in tobacco history, the largest being the purchase by the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company several years ago of approximately 60,000,000 pounds of Burley tobacco from a Burley growers association.

Former Crime Prober Arrested in Murder

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—(AP)—George "Chief" Redston, 31, former investigator for the "Secret Six," was arrested today after he had killed one man and wounded another.

Redston said the man killed, James Spencer, 35, a gambler, and three companions had attempted to "take me for a ride" and that he shot in self-defense.

The wounded man, Danny Wagner, shot in the arm, said that he, Spencer and the other two men were unarmed when Redston approached them and started shooting.

Police recalled Redston himself was wounded in the same vicinity several months ago, supposedly by Spencer.

Arrested in Redston's apartment was a young woman who gave her name as Ethel Turnquist, 22. She denied any knowledge of his affairs.

Police said they believed the shooting resulted from gambling warfare on the north side. Police Captain James Fleming said Redston had been dismissed by the "Secret Six," civic crime fighting group, for collecting "protection money" from gamblers.

JOHN T. DAVIS DIES OF HEART ATTACK

Board of Education Member Succumbs Following Night Session.

Shortly after he returned from a meeting of the Atlanta board of education, of which he was a member, John T. Davis died early Tuesday morning of a sudden heart attack, which struck him as he was preparing to retire. He would have celebrated his 62d birthday today.

Though a victim of heart trouble for 10 years or more, Mr. Davis had been in good health recently, his family said. He retired several years ago from the wholesale meat business at the time he became ill.

After the board meeting Monday night, in which he took an active part, Mr. Davis was driven home by two board of education detectives, A. L. Smith and G. W. Porter.

While in the bathroom preparing for bed, Mrs. Davis heard him fall to the floor and upon arrival, a Grady hospital ambulance physician pronounced him dead.

Born in Gwinnett county, Mr. Davis moved to Atlanta several years ago, where he became prominent in public and business life. His first official position was as a deputy under Sheriff Mangham. He later served as park commissioner and had been a member of the board of education almost two years when he died. He was an Odd Fellow and belonged to the Methodist church.

Funeral services will be conducted at 11 o'clock this morning at Grant Park Methodist church, with the Rev. B. F. Fraser, the Rev. H. J. Penn and the Rev. E. L. Smith officiating. Interment will be in Prospect cemetery in Gwinnett county.

Besides his wife, Mr. Smith is survived by three daughters, Mrs. T. L. Spence, Mrs. Farris Boyd and Mrs. G. A. Davis, of Atlanta; one son, J. T. Davis Jr., of the city construction department, and three brothers, S. M. Davis, J. O. Davis, of Atlanta, and J. A. Davis, of Lawrenceville.

Pallbearers will be John A. Boykin, G. W. Porter, Dr. D. F. Smith, A. C. Garner, F. H. Brady and W. L. Smith. Members of the board of education will form an honorary escort.

Selection of Jury Slows Lamson Trial

COURTHOUSE, SAN JOSE, Cal., Aug. 22.—(AP)—The battle for the selection of the jury to try David A. Lamson on charges of slaying his pretty wife, a Y. W. C. A. secretary, continued today with each side putting up a wary contest.

The box on the desk of the clerk of Judge R. R. Syer's court containing the names of the prospective jurors whirled repeatedly as the talesmen paraded to and from the jury box.

A flare over the questioning of jurors on their belief in the inflicting of the death penalty opened the session but Defense Attorney E. M. Rea's objection to the interrogation by Assistant District Attorney A. P. Lindsay was overruled by the court.

Rea contended the decision to inflict the death penalty or life imprisonment was a prerogative of the jurors.

Women of Flock Kiss Young Pastor Cleared of Disorderly Conduct

Women members of his congregation kissed the Rev. D. C. Crisp, 27, Tuesday afternoon when the pastor of the City Gospel Mission, at 425 Pulliam street, was cleared in recorder's court of being disorderly in conducting revival services at his church.

For some time revivals have been held at the mission on Pulliam street and residents of the section complained to police that too much noise was being created. Assistant Chief A. Lamar Poole sent Patrolmen Battle and Preston to investigate Monday night with instructions to stop the meetings if the neighbors' claims were correct.

The minister was preaching in his pulpit when the police arrived. The officers said they decided the service should be stopped at once and said so. The congregation agreed to leave but the Rev. Mr. Crisp refused to quit right in the middle of his sermon. He kept on preaching.

So the police took him to the station house, where he continued to conduct his revival.

When he was brought before Judge John L. Cone Tuesday afternoon, he stated his case. Judge Cone replied that as long as the services were conducted inside a building he had no right to interfere, but had the preaching been carried on outside the church the pastor would have violated a city ordinance. He dismissed the disorderly conduct charge.

Women who the night before had seen him dragged from his pulpit to spend the night in jail rushed to congratulate the young minister on his victory. They hugged and kissed him.

MACHADO AIDES DEFY ARMY, NAVY

Machadistas Determined To Fight, Rather Than Surrender.

HAVANA, Aug. 22.—(AP)—Army and navy forces were hastening tonight to cut off the escape by land or sea of a last remnant of ex-President Machado's supporters in the western extremity of Cuba.

The Machadistas, 20 or 30 strong, have determined to fight it out rather than surrender and are reported well armed. General Pino Guerra and Senator Wilfredo Fernandez are leading the group, entrenched near Bahia Honda in Pinar Del Rio province.

It was learned another Machado aide accused by the revolution leaders of participating in terroristic acts, Guillermo Urrutia, former Havana district commissioner, committed suicide when his hideout in a suburb was surrounded.

Two heroes of the unsuccessful August, 1931, revolt aganst Machado, Colonel Carlos Mendieta and Colonel Roberta Mendez Penate, returned home today to be acclaimed enthusiastically by their former followers and sympathizers.

Colonels Mendieta and Penate arrived from New York, where they have been living in Exile. They went directly to the presidential palace, where they embraced Provisional President Carlos Manuel de Cespedes. Thousands cheered them as they appeared on the palace balcony.

Many persons made pilgrimages from the interior to participate in the welcoming celebration. A caravan of flag-draped automobiles accompanied the heroes to their homes.

Evidently relieved by the end of the harbor workers' strike, President De Cespedes replied affirmatively to a query as to whether it "will be the government's attitude to distinctly favor organized labor."

Employers granted the dock workers' demands for recognition of their union and rotation of work. The workers are still pressing for deportation of Matthew Molanghy, official of the United Fruit Company and an American citizen. This position was taken on the ground that he steadfastly opposed them.

The president said also: "I have reason to believe a settlement of the transportation strike in Camaguey will be a matter of good will."

Communists have been continuing their agitation against the De Cespedes regime as isolated strikes persisted since the ending of the general island-wide strike. The secretary of communications, Silverio, was sent to Camaguey to act as mediator.

Grand Jury to Renew Police "Racket" Probe

Renewal of the Fulton grand jury's investigation of the alleged "courtesy card" racket in connection with solicitation of advertisements for the police year book is scheduled for a special meeting of the grand jury Thursday. Mayor James L. Key Tuesday had on his desk a resolution passed Monday by council requesting the jury to continue the investigation.

Council's action was taken following a report by a special committee which condemned the "racket" and recommended cancellation of the Krein & Daly contract calling for 75 per cent of year book receipts for the promoters and 25 per cent for the police benefit fund.

The grand jury recently began an investigation of the matter, but has not considered the case in its last several meetings, it was said.

be with proper foundation will be turned over to the state NRA board.

Final instructions for signing 60,000 women consumers to pledge cards were given out by the woman's division of the committee Tuesday. The heads of all woman's organizations were urged to call meetings of their groups to hear speeches and sign cards. Mrs. Max E. Land, chairman of the woman's division, said each woman present at the meetings would be requested to take five cards with her and to urge that number of neighbors to sign pledges to buy only from firms which display the blue eagle and live up to the code of the NRA.

L. L. Austin, executive secretary of the Atlanta Retail Merchants' Association, said Tuesday that more than 150 members representing several groups of trades were now operating in the NRA on temporary codes. The Atlanta Optical Association announced that all members were carrying out the NRA 100 per cent.

Ramspeck Returns.

Congressman Robert Ramspeck, back from Washington, said it was his impression gained at the capital that the recovery program is moving successfully.

"While delay," he said, "has been experienced with several large industries, this has been overcome and the administration is putting on full steam ahead.

"Those in authority have been anxious to give every opportunity for compliance with the program before taking action for enforcement. They prefer voluntary action, but I am sure that those who violate the agreement will be brought to task when the proper time comes. Public sentiment is growing stronger and will carry the campaign through."

Mr. Ramspeck referred to the approaching visit of the president to Georgia and said he felt sure "everyone wishes to see every business in the state operating under the NRA by the time he arrives."

Cumulative statistics compiled by W. L. Mitchell, district manager of the department of commerce, Tuesday showed that 325 new agreements were received, affecting 3,301 employes. The total to date is 18,129, affecting 133,926 employes.

Postmaster E. K. Large issued 113 certificates of compliance, bringing the total to 4,206 to date.

AL SMITH PLEADS FOR NRA SUPPORT

national recovery act has less than two years to run under the law, that the licensing power has less than a year of life before, and, as a matter of fact, up to this time has not been used at all, and that the blanket code which is known as the president's reemployment agreement has no statutory authority but only the sanction of an executive appeal to the generous instincts of a free people, an appeal which no decent, fair-minded person has a right to ignore."

Smith said the "slightest reflection" on these facts should dispose of the claim that the NRA "shakes the firm foundations of our constitution or marks a revolution in our government and in the conduct of our everyday life."

It is "infinitely better to pay the bill" by the methods proposed in the recovery program," Smith declared, "than to pay it in the form of public or private charitable relief."

"Let us see whether by a combination of public works vigorously pushed and voluntary private initiative, stimulated and led by the president, we can get out of this business depression," Smith said. "The plan must not fail through lack of individual co-operation but if it should fail, then we must dig in for a long siege and make up our minds that recovery will be slow and painful."

The former governor said that if the NRA has not accomplished and cannot, in the nature of things, accomplish the millenium, "it has unquestionably resulted to date in the increasing of wages in many callings and in the employment of a large number of those who had become, or were about to become, through no fault of their own, public charges. This accomplishment alone entitles the plan to further trial and full cooperation."

JOHNSON SEEKING CREDIT RESERVOIRS

is that for the past four years there has been a lack of confidence and downward spiral.

"The object of this plan is to create an upward spiral and carry the banks along with it."

Taking time out only for conference with newspapermen and to go before the merchants, the administrator concentrated on the job set for himself to get to President Roosevelt within the next day or two, the codes of the bituminous coal and automobile industries.

Late today, he said there was no chance of either charter being completed before tomorrow but added that he was content with the progress being made.

An additional lever for bringing an agreement among the coal operators and the auto manufacturers is being fashioned by Johnson in the form of a clarification of the long controverted labor provisions of the industrial recovery act.

The provisions guaranteeing collective bargaining to labor without interference as to the type of organization, has been a troublesome matter at each major hearing upon a code, with employers seeking to add an interpretive clause showing that affiliation with a national union was not made mandatory, but that non-union shops could continue.

Will Issue Statement.

"There is no doubt in the world that some clarifying language has to come out of this administration," Johnson said. "There is so much confusion about the words open and closed shops that we have to make a statement on it and we will."

He indicated this would be within the next 24 hours and that this new language might be incorporated in the automobile code and possibly the coal code.

The qualifying clause, regarding a company union plan of organization, was stricken out of the steel code at the insistence of the recovery administration and dissatisfaction was expressed against the interpretative clauses in some of the coal codes presented and the automobile plan.

There were indications that clarification by Johnson would not mention the open shop but would permit the present wording in the automobile code that advancement of employes would be made without regard to union or non-union affiliation.

While discussing the automobile situation, Johnson was asked by newspapermen if there was a possibility of Henry Ford presenting a separate code from that now pending.

"There is, of course, a provision in the act for any subdivision of an industry presenting a code," Johnson said, "but I think we are talking about something fantastic." He said he had heard nothing from Henry Ford regarding his attitude on the code or what he intended doing.

U. S. SEEKING PACT IN MILK INDUSTRY

farm administration that the price for their products has declined while other costs have increased. Part of this increased cost they attribute to the national recovery administration.

Unless the blanket and supplemental agreements contain effective production control features, farm officials agree the plan will fail.

Definite production control provisions have been written into the two milk marketing agreements approved thus far, those for Chicago and Philadelphia.

Control Committees.

Briefly, these call for an allocation of the milk for the areas by control committees. Further control provisions are contemplated in the blanket plan. One suggestion that has received favorable consideration is a sliding scale through which milk prices would rise and fall as the price of butter rose and fell.

Butter fat is used chiefly in the making of butter, and other by-products such as cheese. These furnish an outlet for surplus fluid milk supplied and a surplus of butter has a depressing effect on milk prices.

The proposed milk marketing agreement for Los Angeles contains a price control plan which would establish a definite relation between the retail price of milk per quart and the Los Angeles market quotation for 92 score butter.

The milk marketing agreements already approved would be amended to be operative under the blanket plan now being drawn.

To Meet Thursday.

Butter producers meet Thursday to discuss the emergency situation before them. Their tentative marketing agreement lacks definite control features but these probably will be made a part of the final agreement and the butter pact probably will be aligned with the proposed national milk agreement.

The butter men may follow provisions in the pending national agreement for ice cream. It would fix the minimum price at which fluid milk and fluid cream are to be bought by the ice-cream makers as the minimum price established for the particular area by its milk marketing agreement.

Farm administration officials have been laboring over milk marketing agreements for weeks and the experience gained has been used as the framework of the national plan.

Some details remain to be worked out but the farm administration is striving to have the plan ready for submission to the groups which must agree to it within the next two weeks.

Parity price for milk and its products is the ultimate aim of the farm administration. Parity price would be that at which they must sell to have the purchasing power they had in the period from 1909 to 1914.

Fluid milk sold in July for an average of $1.33 per 100 pounds, about 54 cents less than its estimated parity price. Butter in July sold at approximately 6 cents below its parity price.

REVIVAL OF PLANS TO CUT WEAPONS SET FOR OCT. 16

Thursday night. He reported business would keep him in New York today. On disarmament, the president is still counting on the MacDonald plan as the basis for negotiations. This strictly limits weapons of offense, while permitting full defense.

It was reiterated here today that the American offer to enter into consultation for security stands but that all American offers for international co-operation are contingent upon a disarmed world.

Both the MacDonald and the French proposals fit into the ideas of Mr. Roosevelt who startled the world last spring with a proposal to arrange a treaty banning aggressive warfare as is shown in the crossing of frontiers by armed forces.

It is the belief and hope of Mr. Davis that the tense situations of Europe will speed rather than retard the ultimate success of the arms conference.

Tomorrow, Mr. Roosevelt plans to spend the day in a motor trip to the 10-mile boy scout camp 75 miles away in Delaware county, leaving early in the morning and returning at nightfall.

TEACHERS, SCHOOLS TO GET U. S. AID

the federal emergency relief administration that this paradox can be righted, in some parts, by permitting the teachers to give their services on the basis of their relief needs."

At the same time, as an example, figures were made public for one state which was not named, showing that out of approximately 2,000 schools, 178, with more than 2,000 pupils, are not to be reopened this fall. Almost 500 schools are to be in operation for four months and less, and only a small percentage are to go through the regular nine-month term.

M. D. Collins, state superintendent of schools, was not at home Tuesday night and could not be located for a statement on the condition of Georgia schools. Mr. Collins on previous occasions, however, has said that many schools in the state would be unable to reopen this year because of insufficient funds and that others would have drastically shortened terms. The exact number of institutions to remain closed this year could not be ascertained.

WOMAN TO DENY POISONING DOCTOR

Attorney Says Dr. Sarah Dean Will Plead Not Guilty at Trial.

GREENWOOD, Miss., Aug. 22.—(AP)—Richard Denman, attorney for Dr. Sarah Ruth Dean, charged with the poison-whisky murder of Dr. John Preston Kennedy, said today that the woman child specialist, when she is brought to trial, will plead not guilty and deny that she gave the surgeon the poison.

Dr. Dean, released last night on $5,000 bond, left the hospital today and went to the home here of her aunt, Mrs. J. R. Boyls, who with her husband and a sousin, R. A. Billups, signed the bond.

Dr. Dean had been confined to the hospital nearly a week. Bail was authorized after two physicians formally reported to Sheriff Harry Smith that she was suffering from ulcers of the stomach. Defense counsel had said they would waive a preliminary hearing.

Dr. Kennedy died at a Jackson hospital August 6 after stating he had been poisoned 10 days before by a whisky highball given him by Dr. Dean at a midnight tryst.

For some time they had been professional associates and were said to have been seen together frequently since Dr. Kennedy and his wife were divorced last March. Relatives said the Kennedys had planned to remarry.

Further action by District Attorney Arthur Jordan was not expected to be taken until the grand jury convenes in November.

UNEMPLOYED LABORER KILLS WIFE, CUTS SELF

BALTIMORE, Aug. 22.—(AP)—James E. Gibson, 52-year-old unemployed laborer, today stopped a policeman and said he had ended a five-hour argument with his wife by choking her to death.

He then tried to commit suicide by slashing his wrists, Gibson told the startled officer who accompanied the laborer to his second-story apartment where he found the body of the woman, Mrs. Lulu Gibson, lying across the bed.

Gibson, who was covered with blood, said he went to sleep after his suicide attempt. When he awoke five hours later the bleeding had stopped. He then went looking for a policeman and found Patrolman Victor E. Hirschbaum as he was about to board a car.

"She always wanted to stand by the windows without any clothes on," said Gibson, explaining his act to Captain Thomas J. Mooney at the Northeastern Police Station. "When she did it again last night I got mad and the argument started."

Austrian Chancellor Calls Troops To Meet Nazi Raids

By ROBERT BEST.

(Copyright, 1933, by the United Press.)

VIENNA, Austria, Aug. 22.—(UP) Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss, assured of allied support, ordered over 1,000 picked marksmen in the Austrian heimwehr tonight to mobilize in preparation for a rush to the Bavarian border.

The government's action came on the receipt of military intelligence, the United Press learned, that the nazis, fomenting trouble along the frontier, were planning raids across into Austria, and even large scale invasions next month.

The heimwehr, or home guards, will reinforce the Austrian armed forces already patrolling the German border as a result of the recurrent anti-Dollfuss campaign being conducted by radio broadcasts and airplanes dropping propaganda leaflets.

The Austrian patrols include soldiers and gendarmes as well as customs officials and details from the west Austrian heimwehr, figure available at the war office showed.

Thousands of volunteers are being selected from the best marksmen in eastern and southern Austria. The Vienna heimwehr includes two battalions. Every man to gain admittance to this body must first prove his marksmanship on a rifle range.

Mrs. B's $200 Delay

Mrs. B saw one of our diamond solitaires a couple of weeks ago that struck her fancy immediately. It was a one-carat, perfect stone in a lovely platinum mounting, priced at only $300. We advised her to buy at once, told her that if someone else bought it the replacement price would be far higher.

She delayed her decision, though, and sure enough we sold the ring last Saturday night. Yesterday Mrs. B came back—with her mind all made up to buy it. She was crestfallen when she learned that she was too late and then heartbroken when we explained that the ring couldn't be duplicated for less than $500!

This incident is not unusual nowadays. Diamond and platinum prices are mounting at an unprecedented rate. We are maintaining prices on all diamonds now in stock, but as they are replaced the prices will be—frankly—from one-half to two-thirds higher. Buy today, while you are still able to secure 1933's low prices. Take advantage of our monthly payment plan to make the purchase easy, if you like, or just ask us to reserve any article for you. The rings shown here are typical of the scores of exceptional values that will last only so long as our present stocks.

WOMEN LAUNCH DRIVE IN MARLER'S SUPPORT

An influential committee of seventh ward women will join in the drive to renominate Councilman John T. Marler, of the seventh ward, in the September 20 primary, it was decided Tuesday night at a meeting held at the home of Walter Guest, 493 Atwood street.

More than a score of women interested in Marler's renomination attended the session, and decided to band themselves into a group to assist a man's committee, named several weeks ago and headed by Grover Holcomb.

SPEEDING IS CHARGED TO POLICE OFFICER

Complaints that Lieutenant O. R. Jones, of the Atlanta police department, was speeding and that the officer threatened him, frightening his wife, were made to Captain A. J. Holcombe Tuesday night by R. P. Rankin, of 160 Tenth street, N. E.

Rankin charged in his report that Lieutenant Jones was exceeding the speed limit when he went past Tenth and Juniper streets and that the police car almost struck his own machine. Jones asserted that he stopped for the boulevard signal at Tenth and that his car did not endanger the machine of Rankin. No charges were made by police against the lieutenant. The case will be referred to Chief of Police T. O. Sturdivant.

On the Air Today

The Round Towners' quartet, directed by Harry Simeone, will feature two melodies from the current Cotton Club revue, "Stormy Weather" and "Happy as the Day Is Long," during their program of harmony to be heard from 3:45 to 4 o'clock this afternoon over WGST and the Columbia network.

Fred Waring's Pennsylvanians, rapidly being recognized as radio's most versatile and colorful musical organization, will be heard in a fast-paced variety show over a nation-wide WABC-Columbia network and WGST from 8 ot 8:30 o'clock tonight. The program opens with a medley of college songs announced by Maestro Waring.

Irvin S. Cobb really has no idea just what he is going to talk about when he finds himself before the WABC-Columbia microphone at 7 o'clock tonight over WGST and Columbia. Our spies in the hill country report that the portly Paducahan has been frequenting their region in search of his muse.

Howard Marsh, romantic tenor of musical comedy and light opera, fittingly salutes the "One Girl" to open his program with Jacques Renard's orchestra and the Four Snow Queens over the WABC-Columbia network and WGST from 8:30 to 8:45 o'clock this evening. Another feature of "The Dance of the Ice Cubes" will be a violin solo by Maestro Renard.

Dorothy Smith, soprano, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Smith, of Atlanta, will be the guest artist on the regular broadcast of the Georgia Federation of Music Clubs at 6 o'clock tonight over WSB. J. Gordon Moore will accompany the singer at the piano.

The musical highlights of a Jerome Kern musical comedy of the past, "Good Morning, Dearie," will be presented by Mark Warnow during the program of Curtain Calls from 6:15 to 6:30 o'clock tonight over the WABC-Columbia network and WGST. Soloists on the program will be Rhoda Arnold, soprano, and Evan Evans, baritone, assisted by the Four Clubmen quartet.

Reviewing the Shows

"Phantom Broadcast" Opens Today at Rialto

"The Phantom Broadcast," a most unusual type of motion picture will be the feature attraction on the program at the Rialto theater for the next three days, beginning this morning. Ralph Forbes and Vivienne Osborne head the cast in this remarkable production.

The story is laid behind the scenes in a great radio station where a famous crooner and his accompanist-manager are the star performers. The crooner, a handsome and unscrupulous youth, is popular with women and leads a dissolute life of selfish enjoyment. The accompanist is a man of splendid character but is a hideously deformed cripple.

These two conflict over a girl, desired by the crooner but really loved by the accompanist. And then a gangster, leader of a racketerring crew, enters the plot and things move faster and faster until the startling climax discloses the almost unbelievable secret behind the radio success of the handsome singer—and his accompanist.

It is a picture very different from the usual run of films and one that will undoubtedly be the topic of lots of conversation among screen fans.

Manager W. T. Murray has secured a splendid group of short subjects to complete the new program which will run through Friday.

PERCY IS MANAGER OF FIDELITY ASS'N.

William L. Percy, formerly president of the Dobbs & Wey Company, has been made Georgia manager of the Fidelity Investment Association of Wheeling, W. Va., the company announced on Tuesday.

Mr. Percy succeeds F. F. Talley, who has been transferred to Washington. He has served as president of the Atlanta Association of Credit Men, and formerly headed the board of the Carnegie library. He is a member of Rotary, the Shriners and the Atlanta Athletic Club. The Fidelity issues annuity contracts.

Nudist Colony Picture To Show at Fox Today

"Back to Nature," the nudist colony film made in three colonies in America and two in France, together with a dramatic feature picture, "Self-Defense," based on a Peter B. Kyne story, "The Just Judge," featuring Henry B. Walthall and Pauline Frederick, open an engagement at the Fox today, under the management of the Arthur C. Bromberg Attractions, distributors of the pictures in this territory. The nudist picture was booked into the Fox several days ago, but following legal proceedings which have marked the operation of the theater, the Bromberg Attractions arranged through the lessees to assume operation of the house for this engagement, pending the assumption on September 1 by R. B. Wilby and associates.

"Back to Nature" has created a sensation in New Orleans, where it is just closing a highly successful engagement, and in Shreveport, where it is now playing. It is authentic pictures of the nudist colonies which have swept many sections of the country here and in Europe, and gives intimate details of the lives led by these unique nature lovers.

The added feature, "Self-Defense," and the usual short subjects will give a program of more than two hours. The new management states that Fox thrift book tickets will be accepted through Saturday of this week.

Matinee Performance By Peruchians Today

"Just Married" the stage farce which has brought gales of laughter from both Monday and Tuesday night audiences at the Erlanger this week, will be given twice today by the Peruchi Players. There will be a bargain matinee at 2:15 and the usual night performance at 8:15.

The play was written solely for laughing purposes and it fulfils its mission magnificently. It starts off with a snap and moves in constantly accelerating tempo to the delightful and entirely satisfactory finish. There is one scene, when the hero and heroine, unknown to each other, spend the night in the same stateroom on an Atlantic liner, which is a classic of humor, especially when they wake up and find each other in adjoining twin beds.

The Peruchi Players have given this production a magnificent setting, with beautiful staging and clever effects throughout. Gerald Rowan, the new leading man, proves his versatility both as a comedien and as a romantic lead, while Mildred Peters is excellent in the principal feminine role. Betty Behm Peruchi is especially good in the role of a giggling, gossipy young bride on her honeymoon.

NEGRO IS FINED $34 IN HALLMAN CRASH

Late Dobbs, 47-year-old negro, of 246 Ellis street, Tuesday was given fines totaling $34 or 40 days in jail in connection with an accident July 2 in which his car collided with a machine driven by Harry H. Hallman, of 60 Twenty-sixth street, N. W., well-known Atlanta real estate dealer.

Hallman Dodd, 6, son of Mrs. Carl F. Dodd, of 42 Lombardy way, and a nephew of Mr. Hallman, was seriously injured in the wreck, receiving several torn ligaments in his leg. Mr. Hallman and his small daughter, Miriam, were not badly hurt. The accident occurred at Piedmont and North avenues when the negro's car ran over a red light and struck the Hallman machine. Dobbs was fined $12 or 20 days for failing to appear in court when first summoned and another $20 or 20 days for reckless driving. Judge John L. Cone, in recorder's court, imposed the sentence.

GEORGIA AWAITING ROAD FUND REPORT

George Leaves for Home. Engineer MacDonald Preparing Document.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—Senator Walter F. George returned to his home in the state late today after the series of conferences he and other members of the state congressional group held yesterday with administration officials over the state highway controversy and cotton price situation.

No further developments in the highway matter are expected at this end until Thomas H. MacDonald, chief of the United States bureau of public roads, prepares the report ordered yesterday by Secretary of Agriculture Wallace setting forth the exact conditions under which he will agree to the release of the $10,000,000 due Georgia as its share of federal highway funds.

The report was requested by the agricultural department head during his conference with the Georgia delegation yesterday.

Chief MacDonald is scheduled to have the document ready within a few days and will submit it to President Roosevelt, along with Governor Eugene Talmadge and individual members of the Georgia delegation. There was no indication here today, however, that the conditions to be outlined will be acceptable to the Georgia executive, who has served notice on administration officials that he will not consent to any discrimination against the state in the allocation of such funds.

Senator George, who called the meeting of the delegation with Secretary Wallace, is expected to return to Washington by the first of next week.

Here Is Your Chance To Obtain Accident Insurance at Low Cost

"Policeman and two boys hurt in auto crash."

"Blinded by downpour, man struck by auto."

"Negro dies in crash."

"Merchant killed in accident."

Newspaper headlines during the last few days tell the above stories. Just several instances of the accident wave toll in Atlanta and surrounding country. There were other accidents here; there were hundreds of others in Georgia and throughout the country that The Constitution serves.

Are you ignoring these daily warnings of the peril that hangs over your head? Is your income protected by insurance against abrupt halt in event you became a victim of the accident wave? Is the future of your wife and children safeguarded if you are killed or maimed?

Are you insured? If not, why not? Day in and day out The Atlanta Constitution has been warning its subscribers of the accidents that are happening, and may happen to them, and are urging them to protect themselves at a very small cost.

This is a service rendered to our subscribers and members of the subscriber's family. This service is rendered at considerable cost to The Atlanta Constitution. Everyone knows the small fee asked for the insurance affords no profit. It is a proposition every subscriber should take advantage of. Yet very few realize the importance of this protection. Whether it is negligence, indifference or just do not care, is something hard to understand. No one knows when an accident is going to happen to him.

The safe thing for you to do is to protect yourself and do it today. Tomorrow may be too late.

The insurance offered you through The Atlanta Constitution is issued by the North American Accident Insurance Company, of Chicago, Ill. This company during the last several years has paid to Constitution subscribers and members of their families over $160,000.

The insurance is offered to subscribers and immediate dependent members of a subscriber's family between the ages of 15 and 68 on the one subscription going into the home at the small registration fee of 20 cents with application and 10 cents per month thereafter in addition to the subscription price, or $1 each per policy per year in advance, to subscribers who live in Atlanta; and to subscribers outside Atlanta and suburbs the rate is $1 per year per policy in addition to the subscription price.

The policy The Constitution offers you provides for payment of sums ranging downward from $10,000 for travel, $1,000 for auto and pedestrian deaths resulting from certain specified accidents, heavy sums for permanent injuries, and $10 weekly indemnity for total disability resulting from accidents set forth in the policy, which is at the rate of $43.33 per month. All this for the small fee, as stated above—just about 2 1-2 cents a week, and it is offered to old and new subscribers alike.

In sending application for insurance the applicant must state name in full, give age and occupation, and if beneficiary is desired the full Christian name of beneficiary must be given and relationship to the insured.

CAREFUL DRIVERS ON ROLL OF HONOR AWARDED TICKETS

Among the many careful drivers sighted on Atlanta's streets Tuesday by a Constitution reporter, ten were found using unusual care in obeying traffic regulations. Guest tickets to Loew's Grand have been mailed to them and their names have been added to the careful drivers' honor roll.

Again today a reporter will stand on a busy downtown corner and note the numbers on automobiles driven with exceptional care, and the drivers will be added to the honor roll. Guest tickets to Loew's Grand will be mailed to them this afternoon.

Tuesday's honor roll of careful drivers include:

Joseph M. Smith, 1314 Murphy avenue; Sue Purcell, 809 Myrtle street; A. H. Underwood, 1218 Springdale road; L. H. Marchman, 505 Highland avenue; J. H. Gooren, 57 Harris street; J. V. Hodges, 812 St. Charles avenue; Mrs. J. D. Stevens, 332 Fourth street; W. D. Freeman, route 1, Flovilla, Ga.; H. C. Davis, route 7, box 390; Mrs. B. B. Fuchs, 662 Bonaventure avenue.

INJUNCTION IS SOUGHT TO STOP BEER SALES

Injunction against the sale of 3.2 beer by 22 wholesale distributors in Atlanta was asked of Fulton superior court Tuesday in a petition filed by B. L. Ross as a citizen. Judge John D. Humphries issued a rule nisi returnable Saturday before Judge Virlyn B. Moore, requiring the defendants to show cause why the injunction should not be granted.

In his suit, Ross alleges that the defendants are violating the state bone dry law by offering for sale beer containing one-half of one per cent by volume, or more. The petitioner is represented by Attorney Eldon Haldane.

THE PROCESSING TAX.

The effect of the processing tax on the price of cotton is pointed out by Peter Molyneaux, editor of the Texas Weekly, in an editorial in which he advocates the indefinite suspension of the tax.

Commenting on the difficult position in which the textile industry is placed by this tax, Mr. Molyneaux says:

> Mill executives are uneasy over the probable effects of the processing tax of $21 a bale, which is being levied to finance the acreage plow-up. W. S. Dunson, of LaGrange, Ga., the president of a big mill, points out that his plant uses 25,000 bales of cotton annually, which means that his company must pay $525,000 in processing taxes. "The processing tax on our cotton annually," he said, "will exceed our capitalization. That's a major job of financing and a real load." It is just possible that it will prove too big a load for the textile industry to carry during the period of recovery, that it will result in reduced consumption, and thus tend to force down the price of cotton. If that should turn out to be the case, we do not hesitate to say that we shall advocate as strongly as we know how the indefinite suspension of this tax. And frankly we believe that the cotton farmers who have watched the recent decline in cotton prices with "consternation" might better give their attention to this matter than to the many restrictive measures they indorsed at Austin.

Certainly the mills, faced by the necessity of paying around $21 to the government every time they open a bale of cotton, cannot continue to manufacture if the public does not buy their products at the higher price made necessary by the processing tax.

Cash payment of the tax is required, which means that a mill like that operated by Mr. Dunson must finance an amount of money larger than its capitalization. There are mills in the south which use more than a hundred thousand bales of cotton annually, upon which the processing tax would be considerably more than $2,000,000, which they must pay before they start manufacture. If the public does not buy their products, they must fill their warehouses and continue to carry the financial burden of the tax paid to the government.

Very few of the mills can do this. Those that cannot must stop buying cotton until the public is ready to consume their products at the increased price made necessary by the processing tax.

As great as is the hardship on the mills, it is worse on the farmer, who is deprived to this extent of the best market for his cotton. The result has been the fall in cotton prices to a point where the farmer is getting little more for his staple, in view of the decreased purchasing power of the dollar, than he did last year when cotton was selling for around six cents.

The emergent need for steps to relieve this critical situation was presented by the Georgia delegation to Secretary of Agriculture Wallace on Monday, who is now considering suggestions for a readjustment of the processing tax by permitting textile operators to graduate their payments of the tax. By spreading the payments over a period of 12 months the mills would be relieved of the necessity of tying up their working capital in the tax.

Unless some such step is taken the mills will not take their normal supply of cotton; so, in the long run, the farmer is the chief sufferer. Unless relief is offered, not only the farmer, but every interest in the south, and wherever cotton is manufactured, will suffer.

Mountains all over the world are dropping in height, says a geologist. But you can't convince a tourist who has just climbed one.

The average man, says a New York preacher, is the most important person in the United States today. But none will admit they are just an average man.

The only thing that can put more dirt in the air than a smoke-stack, is a divorce court trial.

LET THIS END IT.

The action of council in ordering the abrogation of the contract made ostensibly for the police benefit fund, but in reality for the benefit of its promoters, should put an end to further schemes of this kind by which the public is misled into believing that contributions are being made for an entirely different purpose from that to which they are applied.

This should be an end to schemes of this kind.

The police fund, for which this scheme was being worked, deserves the support of the public, but those who wish to contribute to this worthy purpose should see to it that their donations are not split with promoters.

Undoubtedly in entering into this contract Chief Sturdivant had no intention of wrongdoing. In his desire to aid a meritorious fund he merely followed a custom that has too long prevailed. He now realizes this and so far as he is concerned there will be no more of it.

The revelations made of the tactics pursued by these professional solicitors by the improper use of the name and influence of the police department assumed the proportion of a public scandal, and council has acted wisely in putting an end to it.

GIVE IT A FAIR TRIAL.

By a conclusive vote city council has declared in favor of a separate board for the administration of Steiner clinic as against the proposition to make the clinic an integral part of the Grady hospital organization, under the direction of the Grady board.

Regardless of the merits of the two plans of operation, the wise course to be followed now, in view of council's overwhelming decision, is to give the plan adopted a full and fair trial.

If it works as successfully as it has been predicted it will, the objective sought in the generous gift of Mr. Steiner will have been obtained. If, after fair trial, it develops that some other plan might be better, it will be time enough then to take the matter up again.

In the meantime, all differences and controversies should be laid aside to the end that the clinic may render the maximum of service to the suffering public and to science.

The deteriorating effect of such controversies as have recently been waged over the control of Steiner are well illustrated in the record of Grady hospital. For many years after its establishment it held high rank among the public hospitals of the country, only to have its efficiency and standing wrecked through bitter controversies and the introduction of political influences.

Under the able and conscientious direction of the present board, these destructive influences have been eliminated and Grady is again in the top rank of the country's municipal hospitals.

Steiner clinic will suffer in similar manner if the controversy which has raged over it during the past few months is not brought to an end.

The action of council opens the way for united support of the humanitarian work for which the clinic was founded. One of the outstanding institutions of its kind in the country, it can go forward to even greater service only if the unfortunate personal differences of the past are forgotten in a united effort to broaden and increase the service rendered by Steiner.

THE WORLD'S WINDOW

BY PIERRE VAN PAASSEN.

Grandeur and Grace.

If there is one country in which the incredible is always close at hand even in this time and age when the picturesque and the romantic are said to be disappearing, it is Spain. It has at least one cathedral where on a certain feast day a horde of boys dressed as ballet dancers dance before the high altar with the approval of the clergy. The treasures in all the churches are intact. Spain never suffered from invading armies which looted and despoiled, as happened in so many other countries.

There is strangeness everywhere. In Toledo as you enter one of its steep twisting streets you see looming above you a church with its facade festooned with black chains and manacles. These are the fetters of the Christian slaves set free from Moorish dungeons when the Cid captured the city. And the life, how smooth and gentle it is there yet! Nobody is in a rush. Nobody gets excited if shops do not open till eleven in the morning. And by four or five in the afternoon everybody is again at leisure and the cafes are full till long after midnight. I met a Spanish journalist in Madrid who had not gone to bed before dawn in 30 years. Yet he did not spend his nights in the editorial rooms, either. I never go near those places, he exclaimed with disdain.

"Then what do you do at nights?" I asked.

"I sit in the cafe, write an article occasionally, contemplate life, debate the issues of the day and drink my glass of grenadine, what more can you expect a man to do? Isn't that the busy life?"

The busy life!

Spanish Romance.

"There was a little girl, who had a little curl." . . . Who was she, the one mentioned in the nursery rhyme? We do not know. We know that she is responsible for much trouble. Take that Cuban black-eyed beauty, Senorita Dompedro Ocejo, who has captured the heart of the Prince of the Asturias. He came, he looked and he was a lost man. Thrones did not matter any more. Palaces became castles in Spain. Centuries of Habsburg etiquette and rigid exclusiveness were blown to the wind. All for a little girl, with a little curl. For the curl she has. It is difficult not to notice it even in her published photographs. The blue-eyed Spanish princeling is openly pitied by his father.

"We know nothing of her family antecedents," sighs King Alfonso. Maybe so, but that curl . . . And the secret of the whole match is that the queen, also a glorious beauty in her time, is paying for the wedding, paid for the engagement ring and sends a bigger allowance than Alfonso ever did. But the queen is not a Habsburg. She is English and she knew that rhyme about the little girl with the little curl long ago . . . and understood its implications.

Health Talks

BY DR. WILLIAM BRADY

THAT GONE SENSATION FOOLS SOME OF THE PEOPLE SOME OF THE TIME.

Appetite is the sum of pleasant sensations aroused through the nerves of taste and smell and in part through the sensory nerves in the lining of the stomach. It is dependent on past associations of an agreeable character.

Hunger is rather a disagreeable sensation produced by contractions of the stomach when it is empty.

Some persons experience a "gone sensation," a feeling of faintness or weakness, instead of hunger, and this quite commonly a few hours after a good meal. This gone sensation is not at all like appetite or hunger and one may not recognize and proper relief of the distress may save one's reputation and maintain good will.

For example a young professional woman who is naturally the most charming and agreeable person becomes strangely cantakerous and impatient, even quarrelsome, if by chance her regular meal time is postponed an hour. But a few minutes after she takes food she is her own good natural self again. The "gone sensation" in her case simply takes the form of irritability.

In some instances it takes the form of great restlessness, or mental confusion, or a kind of lethargy or stupor. Probably the basis of the "gone feeling" in all cases is a temporary shortage in the quantity of sugar in the blood.

At all times healthy persons have approximately a teaspoonful of sugar (glucose) in the blood. An adult has a gallon of blood. The sugar in the blood is the fuel which keeps the vital organs going as well as the fuel for all muscular work. It is derived from the store of glycogen in the liver. The liver contains perhaps half a pound of glycogen—otherwise known as "animal starch." All carbohydrate food is converted into glycogen by digestion. Only when an excess is taken is it converted into fat.

The secretion of insulin, by cells in the pancreas, controls the burning of this fuel. If there is more insulin secreted than is normal, the supply of sugar in the blood will be more quickly burned up, the proportion of sugar in the blood falls below the normal level, and that shortage of blood sugar accounts for the "gone sensation" or the weak spell or the strange stupor or confusion or odd behavior.

The remedy in any case is food, immediate food. Almost any food, but preferably something containing carbohydrate—starch or sugar. Even sweetened tea is fine. Milk is too. Orange juice. Chocolate. Ice cream. Gum drops. Any kind of candy.

The lowering of blood sugar is technically called hypoglycemia. If it falls much below 0.07 per cent (or 7 milligrams of sugar to 100 c.c. of blood) the patient may lose consciousness. Something like that happens to marathon runners and other contestants in gruelling endurance races unless they receive carbohydrates in some form along the way.

Persons subject to mid-forenoon or mid-afternoon hypoglycemia will do well to limit the mergency remedy to a small quantity of fresh fruit juice or skim milk, lest the habitual consumption of extra food bring on obesity in time.

U. S. RADICAL OUSTED BY JAPANESE ORDER

TOKYO, Aug. 22.—(AP)—Alexander Bruckman, of Cleveland, was arrested during a police drive against "foreign radicals and pacifists" today and ordered to leave Japan immediately.

The American, who is 22 and a former student in Case School of Applied Science, was charged with communicating with Japanese radicals since his arrival here from the United States two months ago. He left for Kobe today and will sail for Shanghai tomorrow.

News Behind the News

By Paul Mallon.

NRA STRATEGY WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—All the A-No. 1 industrials refer to the NRA among themselves as a "share-the-work" movement.

In their own private councils, they regard it as nothing more than that.

Their unannounced strategy in dealing with General Johnson has been clearly along that line. Their point is that they cannot spend much more money until they get new business. They cannot hire a large number of men or grant substantial wage increases until they see new money in the till. Any other course, they say, would push them into bankruptcy.

Therein lies the whole inside on the NRA situation now.

FUNDAMENTALS Judging from the codes already signed, the Grade A industries have fairly well won their point.

What they intend to do generally under these codes is share whatever work there is among a greater number of employes. They hope to keep their expenses for that effort down to an absolute minimum. That is natural.

The result will be an increase in the number of employes, but probably not a commensurate increase in the pay roll outlay.

More men will go to work. But there is doubt whether the mass purchasing power will be increased to any great extent.

The inner administration strategy has been to get as much out of each industry as it could without causing an open fight. The government conceded a lot. It gave the steel people much more than it cared to give.

The only alternative would have been a disastrous fight in the courts or at the bar of public opinion.

What the administration has in the back of its mind is an optimistic expectation of a normal fall upturn. It believes the industrialists, who are now in a retrenching frame of mind, will fly into action when they see the fall buying start.

Then the industrialists will have to expand pay roll operations on a basis which will really mean something.

GIVE AND TAKE This means that beside all the fine ballyhoo, a new conception of the NRA has been worked out.

The original idea had to be compromised down to a new basis. The expectation that business can be induced to spend its way to prosperity has dwindled considerably.

That does not mean it is a failure or anything near it. A national share-the-work movement of such proportions may be better than what some of the originators of the NRA had in mind.

If the natural impetus from fall business is sufficient, we will go flying over the top with lusty cheers.

If not, inflationary impetus will be manufactured by the government.

While the industrialists were here bickering about codes, their factories were whirring back home.

The whispers in financial circles recently indicated that the federal reserve board index of industrial production for July will be near 100. Preliminary estimates fixed the figure at 92.

The explanation is that the manufacturers were hurrying along production before their codes went into effect. They have eased up now.

PETS The reason Mr. Roosevelt held up the lumber code for five hours was that he was not satisfied with his own reforestation clause.

The agreed code was brought to him at 11 a. m. one day for signature. It proposed that the lumber industry would help the reforestation program if and when state laws and some other things permitted. Mr. Roosevelt did not like that if and when business. Negotiations were reopened. Arrangements were made to cut out the qualifying clause. It makes no legal difference.

However, it proved the old saying that there are two pet ideas on which Mr. Roosevelt will not compromise.

They are reforestation and the navy.

BUSINESS The best guess as to August business is that it will be about halfway between the figures for June and July, above the former and below the latter.

Impartial government economists look at current weekly statistics with a fishy eye. They are interested by the fact that New York department store sales were up 5 per cent the first two weeks of August. The Fairchilds index shows department store basis commodity prices were up about 5 per cent August 1.

What is confusing is the fact that industrial production is falling off and no one knows what is happening to employment.

NOTES General Johnson made a good gamble with the steel industry on the time limit in its code. Unless steel is operating 60 per cent capacity within 90 days, the code would be useless anyway. That 60 per cent figure means only 10 or 15 per cent more business than steel is doing in this dull month of August.

Johnson had to deny the stories that he will get out between November 15 and January 1, but they accurately reflect the state of his mind. He is essentially an organizer, not a detail man, and his time will pass when the organization work is completed.

The White House correspondent of the New York Herald-Tribune is writing another Roosevelt book, entitled "The Roosevelt Revolution." He is Ernest Lindley, who wrote the biography used in the Roosevelt election campaign. What is so extraordinary about it is the fact that a reporter for a republican paper is writing the accepted current history of a democratic administration.

Why Bother To Cook the Cake If You Don't Intend To Eat It?

—By Robert Quillen—

Western history repeated itself whenever another fortunate prospector found "pay dirt" in a new region. Other adventurers joined him; claims were staked out; there was a madness of digging—fights, excitement, gambling.

But the digging was not the end. The men dug madly for gold, but as their wealth increased the excitement died. They began to dream, and their dreams became reality in the form of homes, schools, churches, luxuries.

After all, they were not digging for gold. They were digging for the things that make life more enjoyable, and they left their picks and shovels when they could.

A young man of my acquaintance reminds me of these gold diggers. People say he is making a great deal of money. His movements and his speech are rapid. Success thrills him; he never relaxes; he lives in a state of excitement.

I wonder how long he will continue to dig, and whether he will discover in time that digging is only a means to an end.

Americans are prone to forget that the business of life is living. They begin to dig for gold in the hope of gaining the things that make life enjoyable, but in the excitement of digging they forget their dreams. Springtime and summer pass, and winter finds them bent and broken, still busy with pick and shovel.

They are like a gambler who begins play in the morning, hoping to win money enough to enjoy the delights of a carnival in the afternoon, but in the excitement of the game forgets the object of it and so plays on until night has fallen and the carnival is ended.

When we name our most successful Americans, we name our richest men. But does anybody believe our richest men get the most out of life?

Herbert Henry Asquith left an estate probated at $44,650, yet he was Earl of Oxford and Asquith and prime minister of England.

Americans need to learn that the purpose of digging is not for gold, but the things gold will buy. Except as a means to an end, plowing would be absurd. It is justified by the enjoyment of the harvest.

To plow and keep on plowing, and get no joy from the harvest, reduces the plowman to the level of the plowhorse.

CITY REGISTRATION FRAUD IS CHARGED

Grand Jury To Probe Allegation by 17-Year-Old Girl "Voter."

Charges of fraud in connection with registration for the municipal primary will be investigated by Fulton county grand jury Friday as a result of disclosures Tuesday.

Miss Cleo Bradley, 17-year-old third ward resident, Tuesday related to the grand jury how she was registered to vote in the September 20 primary. She said she was urged to register, told a political worker for one of the candidates she was not old enough to vote and that she was told it was "all right."

She said she went to the city hall and registered. She asserted she was not asked her age by the registration clerk.

J. Henson Tatum, city clerk and registrar, when informed of the charges said he and his force used "every reasonable diligence in the registration."

"When someone came to our windows who looked less than 21 years old, or we had a reason to believe them too young to vote, we asked their age," Tatum said. "Those were the instructions given the clerks and I know of my own personal knowledge that many were challenged. It is possible for someone younger than 21 to have been registered. We added more than 21,000 names to the registration books in the last 60 days. That is a large number. We could not take the time to challenge all those who presented themselves for registration. Every person who registered did, however, sign an oath that he was 21 years old, and that all taxes required had been paid."

There were charges that others younger than 21 had been registered and that many were on the books who had not paid taxes. It will be about two weeks before the registration lists are completed. Tatum and his force are now working on them.

istration is working for higher prices, certain influences and institutions are exerting their energies in opposition to such program and apparently their efforts are meeting with some degree of success.

No Law.

"I do not know of any law which could be invoked to stop this practice, but certainly the practice at this time is contrary to the program of the adminisration."

In the letter Thomas said that for some weeks "this concern" sent messages collect, giving advice about the market. Where brokerage houses would not accept the collect communications he said, the outfit sent paid messages, adding that copies he was submitting to Cummings were paid for by the sender.

Officials of the New York Cotton Exchange said in New York today they had no knowledge of the activities or sponsorship of the concern which was charged by Senator Thomas with having circulated the bearish tips.

Cotton brokerage circles also professed ignorance of the organization which prompted the senator's statement.

TALMADGE AND WIFE GET FAIR "PREVIEW"

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—(AP)—Governor Eugene Talmadge, of Georgia, in town for Georgia's Day at the World's Fair today, said he had been unable to await the time of the official tour of the grounds planned for him, and with his wife and a few friends went for a "preview" last night.

The governor's party was escorted informally over the grounds by officials of the exposition. Their first stop was at the Georgia exhibit in the court of states.

TALMADGE, STATE HONORED AT FAIR

still more progress both by Georgia and by Chicago."

Governor Applauded.

The governor was applauded loudly when he called upon Georgians and all others to rally behind the president's recovery program.

Senator Russell spoke as a representative of the Georgia bicentennial commission. He called upon Chicagoans to return Georgia's visit at some of the ceremonies attendant upon the state's 200 years of progress.

He credited the colony founded by James Oglethorpe on the site of Savannah with stemming Spanish colonization of the North American continent and traced the development of the young settlement that gave birth to the state now numbering about 3,000,000 population.

Thrice Rose from Ashes.

"Three times has the desolating hands of war laid waste the homes and sustenance of her people," the senator recalled. "Each time she has risen phoenix-like from the ashes of destruction to reach new heights of prosperity and greatness.

"In the arts and accomplishments of peace and achievement, the contributing Georgians have been no less of renown. In literature and in science and in patriotic statesmanship, time will permit but the briefest handling of their contributions."

Among the contributions the senator cited were Dr. Crawford W. Long's discovery of anesthesia in performing surgical operations, Eli Whitney's invention of the cotton gin, the University of Georgia, oldest chartered state institution of higher learning in the nation; Wesleyan College, first college for women with power to confer degrees; Bethesda Orphanage at Savannah, first home for orphans on the American continent; the early Georgia law, giving women the right to hold property free of their husbands' control, and the sailing of the S. S. Savannah, first steam vessel to cross the Atlantic.

"The state produces or is capable of producing most of the necessary minerals, nearly every character of fruit, or vegetables, lumber, poultry, livestock of every kind and practically everything needed for the comfort and sustenance of man," Senator Russell continued.

"Its resources are so great that the three million busy citizens of the state are unequal to the task of development. There is enough for all—and to spare. Its hospitable people extend a warm invitation to the people of other states and countries to come and live or visit with us."

Albert Welcomes Visitors.

Mr. Albert, representative of President Rufus C. Dawes, of the exposition, welcomed the Georgians to Chicago and highly lauded the state's exhibit which features agricultural, textile and other commercial products.

"Georgians will always find a wel come in Chicago," Mr. Albert said. "We always try, even though we do not succeed, to compete with Georgian's world-famous southern hospitality."

Mr. Dawes was prevented from participating in the ceremonies because of the death of an intimate friend.

Hugh Howell, chairman of the state democratic executive committee, responded to Mr. Albert's address of welcome. He extended an invitation to Chicagoans to visit Georgia and then introduced the governor, of whom he said Georgia was deeply proud, and promised that the state would lend Mr. Talmadge to the nation whenever it felt the need of his services.

Prominent Guests Presented.

A number of prominent Georgians, including Secretary of State John B. Wilson, Adjutant General Lindley W. Camp, Mrs. George Brown, director of the women's division of the exposition commission; Scott Allen, chairman of the commission; E. E. Lindsey, of Rome, and Judge I. H. Sutton, of the court of appeals, were introduced to the audience. The introductions were made by Congressman John S. Wood, of Canton.

Singled out for special attention by two speakers were Miss Emma Long, of Athens, and Mrs. Eugenia Long Harper, of Atlanta.

These two elderly women are sisters of the late Dr. Crawford Williamson Long, who in 1842 discovered the use of ether as an anesthetic while practicing in Jefferson, Ga.

Prior to the beginning of the addresses, "Uncle Mose," a former slave whose milestones number between 90 and 100, and who has become a familiar figure in the Georgia state exhibit, was called forward to say a few words.

"Hello, folks ob de world," said the old white-haired negro, all togged out in a stiffly starched white suit.

"We brought him along to show the folks in Chicago how long they can live in Georgia's climate," interpolated a member of the Georgia commission.

After the ceremonies, Governor Talmadge and Senator Russell held an informal reception in the Georgia exhibit rooms. Tonight they were the guests of honor at a brilliant ball at the Hotel Morrison.

The Georgia party had the run of the exposition grounds today. Hundreds spent the entire day on the midway. The party will continue their visit tomorrow and on Thursday will make a steamer trip over Lake Michigan on the S. S. Roosevelt as the guests of Colonel and Mrs. William B. Hutchison, of Albany. The party will leave for home Friday night, arriving early Saturday afternoon.

Diversified Exhibit.

In the Georgia exhibit, visitors from the home state of Bobby Jones will see a large portrait of the famous golfer and a cotton plant that made a record for itself, as yet unsurpassed. In 1912 down on the plantation of John B. Broadwell, in old Hilton county, it grew into the world's largest cotton stalk with 715 open bolls. It was brought to the fair from the Georgia state museum.

The exhibit walls are covered with murals portraying the scenic beauty, industrial development and resorts of the state. One is an aerial view of Warm Springs, Ga., where President Roosevelt and his family have a home. Another exhibit recalls a famous Georgian, Joel Chandler Harris.

Over the doorway is a painting portraying Gutzon Borglum's Confederate memorial project on Stone Mountain. Evidence that Georgia is a nut-producing state is contained in a large collection of different varieties exhibited by the Albany Exchange National bank, of Albany.

Other exhibits show Georgia's wealth in marble, granite, naval stores, lumber, tobacco, shrimp, cotton manufactured goods, harness and shoes.

Mrs. H. M. Tyus, sister of Governor Talmadge, and her daughter, Miss Louise Tyus, are official hostesses in the exhibit. They are from Carrollton.

BOTH SIDES QUIET IN STEINER BATTLE

Rumors of Court Action Heard as New Board Plans Early Meeting.

As the newly created Steiner board of trustees Tuesday planned to hold an organization meeting some time during the week on call of Alderman G. Everett Millican, the controversy concerning the management of the ward appeared to be nearing dissipation, at least for the time being.

There were reports that administrators of the Steiner will will seek to have all court actions dismissed, and there also were rumors that the Grady board of trustees, from whose control council Monday wrested Steiner, will seek to have council's action set aside.

The latter, however, appeared to have little foundation inasmuch as council is regarded as the supreme governing body of the municipality. Proponents of the new and separate board of control for Steiner pointed out that the courts probably would be reluctant to take any action to set aside "such an overwhelming vote of council." The report was that the Grady group may seek to have the action set aside as contrary to the contract between the city and the Steiner administrators.

HOOVER DECLINES TO GIVE EVIDENCE IN BANK HEARING

constitutes the one-man grand jury, went into conference.

"I have nothing to say tonight in connection with Mr. Hoover's message," said Judge Keidan. "I shall consult Mr. Toy and study the telegram carefully and my further plans will be announced in the morning."

The former president's testimony was urged by United States Senator James Couzens, republican, Michigan, who today concluded his own "inside story" of administration policies.

Blames Bankers.

The senior Michigan senator, who had been on the stand for four days, charged that most of the fault for the bank closings here was due to actions of bankers, but that an administration which "did not want to see an epidemic of bank failures during a political year," ordered only a moderate write-down of losses in the two banks, although they knew them to be in unsound condition nearly a year before the bank holiday.

Couzens, noted for his independent tenets in congress, referred yesterday to a director of a local bank whose name he did not mention as saying he "was told by President Hoover that I was a very bad and dangerous man."

"Now I earnestly urge you," said the senator on the witness stand, "to invite Mr. Hoover to come here and tell what a bad man I am. That will give me an opportunity to explain to the jury why I am such a bad man."

Ending his testimony today, Couzens repeated his charge that "an attempt to make millions, without really earning them, by a consolidation and pyramiding of banks without the depositors' consent" was the specific cause of the closing of the First National Bank—Detroit and the Guardian National Bank of Commerce, the direct subject of questioning by the jury.

Not Well Managed.

The nation-wide depression, he said, was the general cause of the shrinkage of assets, but he insisted the two banks would not have closed had they been "as sound and well-managed as they should have been."

The senator also charged that so much money had been loaned by the two banks that they did not dare sell the collateral when the loans fell due. He charged such loans constituted a violation of the banking laws in that the banks were in effect loaning depositors' money on the banks' own stock. Since the two banks were owned by holding companies.

More than 1,000 banks, he said, in other parts of the country "got R. F. C. loans, the directors paid themselves and their friends and then let the bank collapse." He asserted that Wilson W. Mills, former chairman of the First National board, helped a Mount Clemens (Mich.) bank get its R. F. C. loan and "then copped off nearly $1,000,000 to repay himself—that is, his bank."

Today, as in the past, the senator digressed to speak of national affairs, bluntly informing the jury that "both political parties have favorites and do not enforce the law with equal justice." He made the statement after reporting that his criticism of the federal treasury department under Andrew W. Mellon, former secretary of the treasury,, "would take volumes to relate."

Specifically, he said, he objected to the treasury department's system of income tax rebates.

"I didn't object so much to the individuals who got rebates but to the lack of uniformity in the internal revenue department's interpretations of the law," he said. "First they would interpret it one way and then the opposite way, to suit themselves."

Patrick H. O'Brien, state attorney-general, questioning the witness on the now-famous break between him and Henry Ford, after a partnership that began with the founding of the Ford Motor Company, elicited from Couzens the statement:

"That disagreement was 18 years ago and Mr. Ford has said publicly that there is now no disharmony. He has shown no evidence of antagonism toward me, although I was terribly angry when we had our split, and perhaps showed a bad temper—as I do on occasions."

The jury, as a result of Couzens' tertimony, will call at least 40 more witnesses, extending the inquiry for several weeks. On call tomorrow is the Rev. Fr. Charles E. Coughlin, pastor of the Shrine of the Little Flower, who last winter severely criticized Detroit bankers and banking methods.

On Friday, United States Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg is expected to testify.

BATTLE HILL HEAD TO MAKE APPEAL FOR MORE SPACE

A new appeal to city council to provide more space and beds at Battle Hill sanitorium is being planned by Dr. Joseph H. Bradfield, superintendent, he announced Tuesday.

Every bed at the city-maintained sanitorium is now occupied and there are more than 400 applications for admission on file, Dr. Bradfield said. The present buildings accommodate 225 patients, which is the number receiving treatment at present. Dr. Bradfield said there was little turnover in patients and that only a few new ones each year can be admitted. He plans to ask council to appropriate enough money to erect buildings large enough to care for a much larger proportion of the applicants.

Agent Urges Farmers Not To Sell Porkers

MACON, Ga., Aug. 22.—(AP)—A warning to farmers to withhold their hogs from the market at the present prices has been given by D. F. Bruce, Bibb county farm agent, who says speculators are purchasing swine in some parts of the country so they later can sell them to the government at a premium in the federal program to raise the price of pork.

The farmers, and not the speculators, should receive any premiums on hogs killed to reduce the national supply of pork, Bruce asserted.

LITTLE THEATER MOVE SPONSORED IN DALTON

DALTON, Ga., Aug. 22.—The Junior Woman's Club, which is sponsoring a movement to organize a Little theater in Dalton, had one of its most interesting meetings since its organization in April on Friday afternoon at the Robin's Nest home of the club with Mrs. Luther Mann, president, presiding.

J. J. Mahoney Sr., president of the Little theater in Chattanooga, and John E. Gilbreath, casting director, were guest speakers, taking as their subject the need for a Little theater in Dalton and the work of organization.

The Junior Woman's Club advanced the theory some weeks ago that the city should have a Little theater. Upon investigation through a committee with Mrs. Luther Mann, chairman, every civic organization and social club head was questioned and the movement was highly indorsed by the Robert Loveman Library Club, Girls' Cotillion Club, Lesche Woman's Club, Governor John Milledge chapter, D. A. R.; Bryan M. Thomas chapter, U. D. C.; the Civitan Club, Lions Club and Junior Chamber of Commerce, according to the report of this committee.

The musical part of the program was in charge of Clarence Smitherman, baritone, and Chuck Moore, pianist, both of Chattanooga.

Atlantic Seaboard Menaced by Storms

By the Associated Press.

As a northeaster pounded the Atlantic shores from Massachusetts to Hatteras last night, a gale from the Caribbean menaced life and property anew as it swirled north along the Gulf stream.

While the storm flag flew from Boston south to the Carolina cape, the Jersey shore bore the brunt of the northeaster. Seven lives have been lost to the raging waves and a dozen or more persons are missing in this resort section. The damage to such seaside spas as Atlantic City, Seabright and the Atlantic Highlands has been heavy.

The latest reports of the tropical disturbance placed the center of the gale close by the Gulf stream north of Savannah, Ga.

There was no indication when the winds from the northeast would die out. The weather bureau's storm warning yesterday said they would reach the force of a gale along the coast.

The rain and overcast skies held firm for the fourth day along the storm-hit area.

The weather bureau said the Caribbean gale would remain stationary for some time, possibly reaching the vicinity of New York and Long Island today.

Bathing was forbidden at many beaches along the coast as the pounding waves weakened breakwaters and caused a heavy undertow. Coast guard vessels patrolled the area for disabled craft.

DEATH TRUCK DRIVER BLAMES LIGHTS' GLARE

SOUTH BEND, Aug. 22.—Bright lights were blamed here today by Harold Schaab, 33, of Chicago, at a coroner's inquest into the collision near here early Saturday which cost the lives of six persons and the serious injury of half a dozen others.

Schaab told the coroner he was the driver of the truck and trailer which sideswiped an improvised bus, strewing dead and injured over United States highway No. 112. He also admitted leaving the scene without assisting the victims. Because of the bright lights, however, he insisted responsibility for the accident rested with the driver of the other vehicle which contained 30 passengers.

J. C. PENNY PROTESTS COTTON GOODS RATES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—(AP)—J. C. Penny, Inc., New York city, today filed a complaint with the interstate commerce commission that westbound railroad rates on less than carload lots of cotton goods were higher than eastbound and asked that eastbound rates be put into effect on westbound traffic.

The complaint said cotton goods from New England to California cost $3.40 a hundredweight, while the eastbound charge would be only $2.40. The company claimed it had been injured to the amount of $15,166 by the rates.

CELLULOID EXPLOSION KILLS ONE, HURTS THREE

NEWARK, N. J., Aug. 22.—(AP)—An explosion in one of the buildings of the celluloid company killed a man and a girl today and seriously injured three other workers.

The dead are: Susie Calabrese, Newark; Christian Jedle, 45, Union Township.

Three men who were injured were removed to St. James hospital in a serious condition.

Damage amounted to $1,000.

Firemen said they believed the blast was caused by friction in an exhaust pipe.

SHRIMP PLANT STRIKE TEMPORARILY HALTED

BILOXI, Miss., Aug. 22.—(AP)—Canning factories today acceded to the wage demands of 1,000 striking women shrimp pickers in order to avert spoilage of shrimps on hand.

They announced that after the present shrimp had been packed they would halt work until a wage agreement could be definitely reached. This was expected to be settled Saturday when the factorymen plan to adopt the NRA code for their industry.

Millionth Child Wins World's Fair Awards

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—(AP)—Imagine the bewilderment of seven-year-old Darwin Reed when someone nabbed him at the gate of the enchanted island at the World's Fair today and said:

"You are the one millionth youngster to visit this island!"

Darwin, who had come in from his father's farm at Amboy, Ill., to see the fair, soon let joy overcome his amazement for, after he was greeted by the seven-foot giant and the enchanted island clowns, they gave him a coaster wagon and a bicycle as hundreds of kids cheered.

16-YEAR GEORGIA GIRL KILLS SELF WITH GUN

Daughter of Legislator From Dodge County Commits Suicide.

EASTMAN, Ga., Aug. 22.—(AP)—Pauline Hendrix, 16, daughter of State Representative G. R. L. Hendrix, of Dodge county, was found shot to death in her father's room in the residence here at 6 o'clock tonight.

Members of the family reported to county officers that the young girl, who graduated from the Dodge County High school here last June, had stood before a mirror in her father's room and, with a 38-caliber pistol, which she obtained from a dresser drawer, fired a shot that pierced her heart.

The shot was heard by her mother and other members of the family and all rushed to the room. The girl died in her mother's arms within a few minutes without offering any explanation for the act, the family reported.

During the afternoon the girl had been down town, the officers were told, and came home, apparently happy, at 6 o'clock. She passed through the house, spoke to her mother and others and went directly to her father's room, they said. Her mother was across the hall. Her father had not yet come in from his farm.

The Hendrix family is well known in Dodge county. The father is a former member of the board of county commissioners, but retired from that place and was elected to the last general assembly.

Besides her parents she is survived by six sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Alice Bryan, of Tampa, Fla.; Mrs. Clara Gilford, of Eastman; Mrs. D. M. Lasseter, Eastman; Mrs. Frances Floyd, Eastman; Mrs. Lillie May Parkerson, of Atlanta; Miss Josephine Hendrix, Eastman; George Hendrix, Macon, and Columbus Hendrix, of Eastman.

M'CULLOUGH PLEADS INNOCENCE OF MURDER

GRIFFIN, Ga., Aug. 22.—(AP)—Andrew McCullough, sentenced to die Friday for the murder of W. B. Baker, former president of the Atlantic Ice & Coal Company of Atlanta, tonight issued a statement that he is innocent of the charge and that he took the blame to save his son's life. He is in jail here.

He headed his statement, "A Letter From a Dead Man," and said he wants the world to know he is innocent.

He recited his version of the tragedy in which Baker was killed and his son, Dr. Pope Baker, was injured.

McCullough said: "I took the blame for killing Mr. Baker to save my son, though I did not shoot Mr. Baker. The man I shot was Dr. Pope Baker and I shot him to save my boy's life."

These experiments are published by Ray Mars Simpson, psychologist at the Institute for Jugenile Research, Chicago. His test readers were 40 university students, 24 men and 16 women. Their ages were 18 to 41.

TESTIMONY IS BEGUN IN WESTBERRY TRIAL

VALDOSTA, Ga., Aug. 22.—(AP)—Selection of the jury was completed and testimony was begun today in the trial of Austin Westberry, charged with murder for the slaying of W. H. Browning and his wife in their gasoline filling station three years ago.

Eleven jurors, most farmers, were chosen with the recessing of court shortly after noon. After the lunch hour, the remaining one was selected and the prosecution began presenting its evidence.

A total of 180 talesmen were examined in the selection of the first 11 men to be seated in the jury box.

The prosecution announced Westberry would be tried on an indictment charging him with murdering both Browning and his wife. Heretofore he was convicted of killing Browning but the state supreme court granted him a new trial, setting aside a sentence of life imprisonment.

Browning was killed instantly by a shotgun charge fired through a window as he played cards with his wife. Then two men fired through the open door and felled her as she tried to flee. She died a short while later.

The state maintains robbery was the motive for the slayings.

Ed Rivers, of state's counsel, told the jury in an opening statement that the state will ask the death penalty. J. B. Copeland, chief of defense counsel, said he would present evidence seeking to prove that Westberry was 300 miles away at time of the murders.

The state presented three witnesses today. Emmet Martin told of finding the Brownings soon after the shooting. Mrs. Una Bailey told of her trip to the hospital with Mrs. Browning, and L. T. McGowan, undertaker, described the wounds.

ORPHAN MURDERER MODEL PRISONER IN SPARTA CAMP

SPARTA, Ga., Aug. 22.—(AP)—Faced with life imprisonment for the murder of an orphan in a plot to collect life insurance, Earl Manchester is working in a convict camp here and the warden says he is a model prisoner.

The youth, who was convicted of helping Mrs. Sarah Powers kill James Parks, former inmate of a children's home at Hapeville, was transferred here recently from the Bibb county jail in Macon.

Warden T. C. Aycock assigned him to light work around camp until he becomes accustomed to manuel labor.

Young Parks was slain in Macon in 1929 and Mrs. Powers, a boarding housekeeper, and Manchester, formerly of Rochester, Mich., were convicted and sentenced to the electric chair. Both won new trials and after long litigation their lives were spared by life sentences.

Manchester promised Warden Aycock he would obey all rules of the camp and give no trouble.

BANKS ARE URGED TO EXPAND CREDIT

R. F. C. Chief Voices Plea To Create More Jobs With Approval of F.D.R.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—(AP)—With the full approval of President Roosevelt and the treasury, Chairman Jones, of the Reconstruction Corporation, tonight asked the nation's banks to aid in the "back-to-work" movement by expanding credit. At the same time

National Recovery

THIS BANK has already pledged full cooperation with the President's recovery program. We are in accord with his suggestion that banks endeavor to cause credit to move more rapidly into legitimate business channels and thereby stimulate commerce and industry. This bank was one of the first in America to actually advertise for loans. Of course, a yardstick of loan safety must be applied to all, but our loan facilities are available to the very limit of good banking practice.

What the Blue Eagle means to you and how you can get it

The President's Reemployment Program is advancing to complete success. No such sweeping demonstration of the unity of a whole people against a national danger has ever been made. • In this vast surge of patriotism it is necessary to keep our common purpose always clear. When 125,000,000 people attempt to act as one man there are sure to be some misunderstandings. It is time to restate as clearly as possible the aim of the whole endeavor and the duty of each individual. • That is the purpose of this message—to state officially, briefly and clearly the simple rules for common guidance. • It is an evidence of the self-sacrificing service of the whole country that this newspaper has donated this space. In that spirit the whole country is acting. • This plan depends wholly on united action. That unity is almost complete. In the next few days let us close up every gap in the ranks and nail the flag of the Blue Eagle on the door of every man who works another man.

Hugh S Johnson

OFFICIAL EXPLANATION OF THE PRESIDENT'S REEMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

(Sometimes miscalled "The Blanket Code")

This Agreement binds you to put its terms into effect from the time you sign the Certificate of Compliance until December 31, 1933; but when the President has approved a Code for your trade or industry, that Code takes the place of this Agreement.

You agree:

Child Labor

(1) After August 31, 1933, not to employ any person under 16 years of age, except that persons between 14 and 16 may be employed (but not in manufacturing or mechanical industries) for not to exceed 3 hours per day and those hours between 7 A. M. and 7 P. M. in such work as will not interfere with hours of day school.

This means that after August 31, 1933, you agree not to employ any children under 14 years old in any kind of business. You may employ children between 14 and 16 years old, but only for three hours a day and those hours must be between 7 in the morning and 7 at night, and arranged so as not to interfere with school. You agree not to employ any children under 16 years old in a manufacturing or mechanical industry, at any time.

Maximum Hours

(2) Not to work any accounting, clerical, banking, office, service, or sales employees (except outside salesmen) in any store, office, department, establishment, or public utility, or on any automotive or horse-drawn passenger, express, delivery, or freight service, or in any other place or manner, for more than 40 hours in any 1 week and not to reduce the hours of any store or service operation to below 52 hours in any 1 week, unless such hours were less than 52 hours per week before July 1, 1933, and in the latter case not to reduce such hours at all.

This means that you agree not to work any of the kinds of employees listed in this paragraph (except outside salesmen) for more than 40 hours a week. This paragraph covers all employees except factory workers, mechanical workers and artisans. However, no limit on hours and no minimum wage applies to purely agricultural labor, domestic servants, or persons working for you solely on a commission basis; but, if you have persons working for you who are guaranteed a base pay in addition to their commission, then their base pay plus commissions must equal the minimum wage.

This Agreement sets no maximum on the number of hours you may keep your business open. You agree not to keep your wholesale, retail, or service establishment open less than 52 hours a week unless it was open less than 52 hours a week before July 1, 1933. Even then you agree to keep it open as long as you used to keep it open before July 1. Of course, if you have always kept your store open shorter hours in the Summer months you can continue to do so this Summer, but you should pay your employees the same amount each week that they will get when you keep your store open full time.

The stores with more than two employees which remain open the longest are contributing the most to carrying out the purpose of the Agreement. The stores with two o. less employees which can be open only the minimum number of hours required, are doing the most to fulfill their part.

(3) Not to employ any factory or mechanical worker or artisan more than a maximum week of 35 hours until December 31, 1933, but with the right to work a maximum week of 40 hours for any 6 weeks within this period; and not to employ any worker more than 8 hours in any one day.

This means that if you are employing factory or mechanical workers or artisans, you agree not to work them more than 35 hours a week and not more than 8 hours in any one day.

When you have more than the usual amount of work to do and can't get additional workers, you may employ this class of employee up to 40 hours a week in any 6 weeks, but even in this case you must not work them more than 8 hours a day.

(4) The maximum hours fixed in the foregoing paragraphs (2) and (3) shall not apply to employees in establishments employing not more than two persons in towns of less than 2,500 population which towns are not part of a larger trade area; nor to registered pharmacists or other professional persons employed in their profession nor to employees in a managerial or executive capacity, who now receive more than $35 per week; nor to employees on emergency maintenance and repair work; nor to very special cases where restrictions of hours of highly skilled workers on continuous processes would unavoidably reduce production but, in any such special case, at least time and one-third shall be paid for hours worked in excess of the maximum. Population for the purposes of this agreement shall be determined by reference to the 1930 Federal census.

This means that there are certain employees whom you may work longer hours than are allowed by paragraphs (2) and (3) P. R. A.

If your business is in a small town (population less than 2,500 by the 1930 census) and you do not employ more than two persons, the limit on hours does not apply to these employees. If your town is really a part of a larger business community, the limit on hours does apply to these employees.

The limit on hours does not apply to your employees who are wholly or primarily managers or executives, as long as they receive $35 a week. Professional persons, like doctors, lawyers, registered pharmacists and nurses, may be employed without any limit on hours.

Where employees are doing emergency jobs of maintenance or repair work, they may be kept on the job for longer hours, but you agree to pay them at least time and one-third for hours worked over the limits set in paragraphs (2) and (3) P. R. A.

There are a few very special cases where highly skilled workers must be allowed to work more than the limit of hours in order to keep up output on continuous processes, but, here again, you agree to pay them at least time and one-third for the hours they work over the limits set in paragraphs (2) and (3) P. R. A.

Minimum Wages

(5) Not to pay any of the classes of employees mentioned in paragraph (2) less than $15 per week in any city of over 500,000 population, or in the immediate trade area of such city; nor less than $14.50 per week in any city of between 250,000 and 500,000 population, or in the immediate trade area of such city; nor less than $14 per week in any city of between 2,500 and 250,000 population, or in the immediate trade area of such city and in towns of less than 2,500 population to increase all wages by not less than 20 per cent, provided that this shall not require wages in excess of $12 per week.

This sets out the schedule of minimum wages which you agree to pay all employees, except factory or mechanical workers or artisans. The wages are set out in terms of dollars per week, but if your employees are paid by the hour, you may use the following schedule:

Place of Business: (Population by 1930 Census)	Minimum Wage:
In cities of 500,000 or over	37½ cents per hour
In cities of between 250,000 and 500,000	36¼ cents per hour
In cities of between 2,500 and 250,000	35 cents per hour

If your business is in a town of less than 2,500 population, you agree to raise all wages at least 20%. If raising all wages 20% causes you to pay over $12 per week, then you need only pay the $12 per week.

If there is any doubt in your mind as to whether your business is in the "immediate trade area" of a city, you should ask your local Chamber of Commerce or other similar organization for a decision on the matter. The general rule is that the "immediate trade area" is the area in which there is direct retail competition.

(6) Not to pay any employee of the classes mentioned in paragraph (3) less than 40 cents per hour unless the hourly rate for the same class of work on July 15, 1929, was less than 40 cents per hour, in which latter case not to pay less than the hourly rate on July 15, 1929, and in no event less than 30 cents per hour. It is agreed that this paragraph establishes a guaranteed minimum rate of pay regardless of whether the employee is compensated on the basis of a time rate or on a piecework performance.

This fixes the minimum wage which you agree to pay factory and mechanical workers and artisans. The following schedule may help you to find out the proper rate:

If the rate for the same kind of work in the same community on July 15, 1929, was:	The minimum rate which you agree to pay is:
More than 40c an hour	40c an hour
30c to 40c an hour	The July 15, 1929 hourly rate
Less than 30c an hour	30c an hour

Instead of paying by the hour, you may pay by the week at a rate which gives the same weekly earnings for a week of 35 hours. For example, instead of 40c an hour, you may pay $14 per week.

If you had a contract on or before August 1, 1933, with a learner or apprentice, you do not have to pay him the minimum wage, but no one should be classed as a learner or an apprentice who has ever been employed as a regular worker in your industry.

(7) Not to reduce the compensation for employment now in excess of the minimum wages hereby agreed to (notwithstanding that the hours worked in such employment may be hereby reduced) and to increase the pay for such employment by an equitable readjustment of all pay schedules.

Two official interpretations—No. 1 and No. 20—have been issued, explaining this paragraph. You can get copies of these at your local Chamber of Commerce or from the nearest N. R. A. representative.

Anti-Subterfuge

(8) Not to use any subterfuge to frustrate the spirit and intent of this Agreement which is, among other things, to increase employment by a universal covenant, to remove obstructions to commerce, and to shorten hours and to raise wages for the shorter week to a living basis.

This is the heart of the whole Agreement. The President's Plan is to cure this depression by increasing purchasing power. You can help him put this plan over by voluntarily signing this Agreement to shorten hours and raise wages. There is no force to compel you to sign this Agreement. It is not law. It is a personal agreement between you and the President. The President expects you to do everything in your power to carry out the spirit of the Agreement after you sign it. This means whole-hearted cooperation by really earning the Blue Eagle—not by just getting it and then not doing your part.

It would be a "subterfuge to frustrate the spirit and intent of this Agreement" to sign it and then put all of your employees on a straight commission basis—or any other trick to avoid doing what you promise to do.

Anti-Profiteering

(9) Not to increase the price of any merchandise sold after the date hereof over the price on July 1, 1933, by more than is made necessary by actual increases in production, replacement, or invoice costs of merchandise, or by taxes or other costs resulting from action taken pursuant to the Agricultural Adjustment Act, since July 1, 1933, and, in setting such price increases, to give full weight to probable increases in sales volume and to refrain from taking profiteering advantage of the consuming public.

The object of this paragraph is to prevent profiteering or speculation, so that prices will not rise faster than purchasing power, and destroy the President's plan. The danger to be avoided was pointed out by the President on June 16, 1933, in the statement which he made on signing the Recovery Act. He said, then:

"If we now inflate prices as fast and as far as we increase wages, the whole project will be set at naught. We cannot hope for the full effect of this plan unless, in these first critical months, and, even at the expense of full initial profits, we defer price increases as long as possible. If we can thus start a strong, sound upward spiral of business activity our industries will have little doubt of black-ink operations in the last quarter of this year. The pent-up demand of this people is very great, and if we can release it on so broad a front, we need not fear a lagging recovery. There is greater danger of too much feverish speed."

If you were selling your merchandise on July 1, 1933, below cost, you may take your cost price on that date as the basis for determining the allowable increase under this paragraph.

Cooperation

(10) To support and patronize establishments which also have signed this Agreement and are listed as members of N. R. A. (National Recovery Administration).

The success of the President's Reemployment Agreement Program depends upon public support going to those who raise wages and shorten hours in accordance with this Agreement, in order to repay them for the extra expense which they have incurred in doing their part.

Codes

(11) To cooperate to the fullest extent in having a Code of Fair Competition submitted by his industry at the earliest possible date, and in any event before September 1, 1933.

This Agreement is a temporary measure to tide over the time from now until all employers and employees can cooperate under Codes of Fair Competition under the National Industrial Recovery Act. You agree, in this paragraph, to do all you can to have a Code submitted for your trade or industry before September 1, 1933.

Appropriate Adjustments

(12) Where, before June 16, 1933, the undersigned had contracted to purchase goods at a fixed price for delivery during the period of this Agreement, the undersigned will make an appropriate adjustment of said fixed price to meet any increase in cost caused by the seller having signed this President's Reemployment Agreement or having become bound by any Code of Fair Competition approved by the President.

This Agreement will, usually, increase the costs of those who sign it. The purpose of this paragraph is to pass any such increased costs along from one signer to another, and so on to the consumer.

If you have a contract made before June 16, 1933, to buy goods at a fixed price, you agree to make an arrangement with your seller so that you pay him for the extra cost to him caused by his having signed this Agreement, or having come under a Code approved by the President.

In some cases the final buyer is the Government, which, under existing law, is generally not allowed to pay more than the contract price. The President has announced that he will recommend to Congress that appropriations be made to allow the Government to play its part by paying Government contractors who have signed the Agreement for their increased costs. The President has also appealed to the States and cities to take action permitting them to do likewise.

You should have no fear that, because your buyer has not signed, you will be left with the increased cost on you alone. The President expects every employer to sign this Agreement.

Substitutions

(13) This Agreement shall cease upon approval by the President of a Code to which the undersigned is subject; or, if the N. R. A. so elects, upon submission of a Code to which the undersigned is subject and substitution of any of its provisions for any of the terms of this Agreement.

As pointed out in the explanation of paragraph (11) P. R. A. above, the President plans to have all business govern itself under Codes, and therefore Codes should be promptly submitted. If N. R. A. finds that the wages and hours provisions of a Code which has been submitted are within the spirit of this Agreement, N. R. A. will authorize your industry to operate under those provisions rather than under the wages and hours provisions of this Agreement.

Exceptions

(14) It is agreed that any person who wishes to do his part in the President's Reemployment Drive by signing this Agreement, but who asserts that some particular provision hereof, because of peculiar circumstances, will create great and unavoidable hardship, may obtain the benefits hereof by signing this Agreement and putting it into effect and then, in a petition approved by a trade association of his industry, or other representative organization designated by N. R. A., may apply for a stay of such provision pending a summary investigation by N. R. A., if he agrees in such application to abide by the decision of such investigation. This Agreement is entered into pursuant to section 4 (a) of the National Industrial Recovery Act and subject to all the terms and conditions required by sections 7 (a) and 10 (b) of that act.

If you really want to do your part in the President's Reemployment Program, sign this Agreement. If some particular part of this Agreement causes you, as an individual employer, great and unavoidable hardship, you may obtain relief by taking the steps outlined under the heading "Cases of Individual Hardship."

Save this sheet as your official source of information. If there are any problems in your mind which are not cleared up by this explanation, get in touch with the official N. R. A. representative in your community.

4. Don't Employ Child Labor. (See paragraph 1, P.R.A.)
5. Cooperate with the President. To do this:
   - (a) Live Up to the Agreement. (See paragraph 8, P.R.A.)
   - (b) Don't Profiteer. (See paragraph 9, P.R.A.)
   - (c) Deal Only with Others "Under the Blue Eagle." (See paragraphs 10 and 12.)
   - (d) Get a Code in by September 1st. (See paragraphs 11 and 13, P.R.A.)

HOW TO GET THE BLUE EAGLE

3. Put the Agreement into Effect (as outlined above in "How to Earn the Blue Eagle").

5. Deliver the Certificate of Compliance to Your Post Office. The Postmaster will give you your Blue Eagle.

EXCEPTIONAL CASES

1. Where a Code Has Been Submitted. (See paragraph 13, President's Reemployment Agreement). If your whole Trade or Industry is unable to live up to the President's Agreement, you should get together at once, with other employers in your Trade or Industry and, in a group, submit a Code of Fair Competition to N. R. A. in Washington.

Since it takes some time after a Code has been submitted for it to be finally approved, your group may petition N. R. A. to substitute the wages and hours provisions of your Code for the wages and hours provisions of the President's Reemployment Agreement.

If N. R. A. finds that the Code provisions are within the spirit of the President's Reemployment Agreement, it will consent to such substitutions. If N. R. A. does consent there will be an official notice in all the papers. You may then put the substituted provisions into effect in place of the indicated paragraphs of the President's Reemployment Agreement. In this case you should add to your Certificate of Compliance the following clause: "To the extent of N. R. A. consent as announced, we have complied with the President's Agreement by complying with the substituted provisions of the Code submitted by the ———— Trade/Industry."

If the substitution is consented to after you have already put the President's Reemployment Agreement into full effect, and after you have already gotten your Blue Eagle, you may still put the substituted provisions into effect without signing another Certificate of Compliance.

2. Where a Code Has Been Approved. If a Code of Fair Competition for your Trade or Industry has already been finally approved by the President, you need not sign the President's Reemployment Agreement in order to get the Blue Eagle. The same is true if you are subject to a Code which has been put into effect temporarily by agreement between the President and representatives of your Trade or Industry; but in either of these cases, you must sign a Certificate of Compliance, adding to it the following statement: "We have complied with the operative provisions of the Code for the —— Trade/Industry."

3. Cases of Individual Hardship. (Paragraph 14, President's Reemployment Agreement).

If there are some peculiar reasons why a particular provision of the President's Agreement will cause you, individually, a great and unavoidable hardship, you may still get the Blue Eagle by taking the following steps:

(a) Sign the Agreement and mail it to your District Office of the Department of Commerce.

(b) Prepare a petition to N. R. A. setting out the reasons why you cannot comply with certain provisions, and requesting that an exception be made in your case.

(c) Have this petition approved by your Trade Association. If there is no Trade Association for your business, have your petition approved by your local Chamber of Commerce or other representative organization designated by N. R. A.

(d) If the Trade Association, or other organization, approves your petition, send it to N. R. A. in Washington with this approval.

(e) Comply with all the provisions of the Agreement except the one you are petitioning to have excepted.

(f) Sign the Certificate of Compliance, adding to it the following clause: "Except for those interim provisions regarding wages and hours which have been approved by the ———— Trade Association." Deliver this Certificate of Compliance to your Post Office. You will receive a Blue Eagle, but before displaying it, you must put a white bar across its breast with the word "Provisional" on it. If your petition is finally approved by N. R. A. you may take the bar down. If your petition is not approved by N. R. A. you must comply with the Agreement in full.

4. Union Contracts. If you have a contract with a labor organization calling for longer hours than the President's Agreement allows, and this contract was made in good faith by collective bargaining and cannot be changed by you alone, try to get the labor organization to agree to a reduction to the maximum hours allowed by the President's Agreement. If the labor organization will not agree, you may apply to N. R. A. for permission to work your employees as many hours a week as the contract calls for. Send to N. R. A. a request for this permission, with a certified copy of the labor contract and any statement of fact you desire. This application will be handled by N. R. A. in the same manner as an application for relief in cases of individual hardship, filed under paragraph (14) P. R. A., but it will not be necessary to obtain the approval of a trade association or other organization. If N. R. A. approves your application or is able to bring about any modification of the contract, you will then be granted permission to work employees in accordance with the contract as originally written or modified, and can then sign the Certificate of Compliance adding to it the following: "Except as required to comply with the terms of the Agreement in effect between the undersigned and the (Name of Labor Organization)."

When Worlds Collide

By EDWIN BALMER & PHILIP WYLIE

INSTALLMENT I.

The secret itself was still safe. It was clear that the public not yet could have learned it. No; the nature of the tremenous and terrific discovery remained locked in the breasts of the men who had made it. No one had broken so badly under the burden of it that he had let slip any actual details of what had been learned.

But the fact that there was a secret, of incomparabel importance, was out.

David Ransdell received plenty of proof of it, as he stood at the Europa's rail, and the radiograms from shore were brought to him. He had had seven, all of the same sort, within the hour; and here was another.

He held it without opening it while he gazed across the sparkling water at the nearing shores of Long Island beyond which lay New York. Strange that, in a city which he could not yet see, men could be so excited about his errand.

The first, arriving less than an hour ago, offered him $1,000 for first and exclusive information—to be withheld from all others for 12 hours—of what he carried in his black box. It was signed by the most famous newspaper in New York.

Hardly had the messenger started back to the radio station when a second boy appeared with a message from another newspaper: "Two thousand dollars for first information of your business in New York."

Within 10 minutes the offer had jumped to $5,000, made by another paper. Plainly, the knowledge that there was a secret of utmost importance had spread swiftly!

The offer remained at five thousand for 20 minutes; then it jumped and doubled. It was $10,000 in the last radiogram Dave had opened. Ten thousand dollars cash for first information, which now need be withheld from others only for six hours, regarding what he was bringing to New York.

The thrilling and all-absorbing fact of it was that David Ransdell himself did not know what he carried which could become of such amazing concern. He was merely the courier who transported and guarded the secret. Those who had entrusted it to him knew that he would never violate his word. Least of all, would he sell out to others. Moreover (if curiosity tried him beyond his strength) he had Professor Bronson's word for it that the contents of the box would be utterly meaningless to him. Only a few men, with very special training, could make out the meaning.

Cole Hendron in New York—Dr. Cole Hendron, the physcist—could make it out. Indeed, he could determine it more completely than any other man alive. That was why Dave Ransdell, from South Africa, was bound for New York; he was bringing the box to Cole Hendron, who, after he had satisfied himself of the significance of its contents, would take the courier into his confidence.

Dave gripped the rail with his aggravated impatience for arrival in the city. He wondered, but with secondary interest only, under the circumstances, what it would be like in America. It was the native land of his mother; but David had never so much as seen its shores before. For he was a South African—his father an Englishman who had once ranched in Montana, had married a Montana girl and had taken her to the Transvaal. Dave had been born at Pretoria, schooled there, and had run away from school to go to war.

The war had made him a flyer. He had stayed in the air afterward, and he was flying the mails when, suddenly, at the request of Capetown—and he did not yet know from how high an official source—he had been granted a special leave to fly a certain shipment of scientific material to America. That is, he was instructed to fly it not only the length of his ordinary route, but to continue with it the length of Africa and across the Mediterranean to France, where he was to make connection with the fast express steam Europa for New York.

He had been summoned at night to the great mansion of Lord Rhondin, near Capetown. Lord Rhondin himself, a big, calm, practical-minded man, received him; and with Lord Rhondin was a tall, wiry man of forty-odd, with a quick and nervous manner.

"Professor Bronson," Lord Rhondin said, introducing Ransdell.

"The astronomer?" Dave asked as they shook hands.

"Exactly," said Lord Rhondin. Bronson did not speak at all then, or for several minutes. He merely grasped Dave's hand with nervous tightness and stared at him while he was thinking, patently, of something else—something, Dave guessed, which recently had allowed him too little sleep.

"Sit down," Lord Rhondin bade. They were in a big, secluded room given to trophies of the hunt. Animal skins covered the floor; and lion and buffalo and elephant heads looked down from the walls, their glass eyes glinting in the light which was reflected, also, by festoons of shining knives and spears.

"We sent for you, Ransdell," said Lord Rhondin, "because a very strange discovery has been made—a discovery which, if confirmed in all details, is of incomparable consequence. I tell you that at the outset, Ransdell, because I must refrain for the present from telling you anything else about it."

Dave felt his skin prickling with a strange, excited awe. There was no doubt that this man—Lord Rhondin, industrialist, financier and conspicuous patron of science—thoroughly believed what he said; behind the eyes which looked at David Ransdell was awe at knowledge which he dared not reveal. But Dave asked boldly, "Why?"

"Why can't I tell you?" Lord Rhondin repeated, and looked at Bronson. Professor Bronson nervously jumped up. He stared at Lord Rhondin and then at Ransdell, and looked up from him at a lion's head.

"Strange to think of no more lions!" Bronson finally muttered. The words seemed to escape him involuntarily.

Lord Rhondin made no remark at this apparent irrelevance. Ransdell, inwardly more excited by this queerly oppressive silence, at last demanded, "Why will there be no more lions?"

"Why not tell him?" Bronson asked.

But Rhondin went abruptly to business: "We asked leave for you, Ransdell, because I have heard that you are a particularly reliable man. It is essential that material connected with the discovery be delivered in New York City at the earliest practicable moment. You are both an expert pilot who can make the best speed, and you are dependable. If you will take it, I will put the material in your care; and—can you start to-night?"

"Yes, sir. But—what sort of material, I must ask, if I am to fly with it?"

"Chiefly glass — photographic plates."

"How many of them?"

Lord Rhondin threw back a leopard-skin which had covered a large black traveling-case. "They are packed, carefully, in this. I will tell you this much more, which you may guess, from Professor Bronson's presence. They are photographic plates taken by the greatest telescopes in South Africa, of regions of the southern sky which are never visible in the Northern Hemisphere. You are to take them to Dr. Cole Hendron in New York City, and deliver them personally to him and to no one else. I would tell you more about this unusual errand, Ransdell, if the—the implications of these plates were absolutely certain."

At this, Professor Bronson started, but again checked himself before speaking; and Lord Rhondin went on:

"The implications, I may say, are probably true; but so very much is involved that it would be most disastrous is even a rumor of what we believe we have discovered, were given out. For that reason, among others, we cannot confide it even to you; but we must charge you personally to convey this box to Dr. Hendron, who is the scientific consultant of the Universal Electric and Power Corporation in New York City. He is now in Pasadena, but will be in New York upon your arrival. Time is vital—the greatest speed, that is, consistent with reasonable safety. You should reach Dr. Hendron not later than a week from Monday. You may return, then, if you wish. On the other hand"—he paused as crowded considerations heaped in his mind,—"you may be indifferent as to where you are."

"On the earth," added Professor Bronson.

"Of course—on the earth," Lord Rhondin accepted.

"I would go myself, Ransdell, you understand," Bronson then proceeded. "But my place, for the present, certainly is here. I mean, of course, at the observatory. . . . It is possible, Ransdell, in spite of precautions which have been taken, that some word of the Bronson discovery may get out. Your errand may be suspected. If it is, you know nothing—nothing, you understand? You must answer no inquiry from any source. None—none whatever!"

Until now, nothing had happened to recall these emphatic cautions; but now, something was out. A boy was approaching with another radio:

"Twenty thousand dollars in cash paid to you if you grant first and exclusive interview regarding the Bronson discovery to this paper."

It was signed by the man who, an hour ago, had opened the bidding with one thousand dollars.

Dave crumpled it and tossed it overboard. If the man who sent it had been in that trophy room with Bronson and Lord Rhondin, he would have realized that the matter on their minds completely transcended any monetary consideration.

The evening in New York was warm. On the high terrace of the Hendron apartment Eve found that her search for a breath of fresh air was fruitless. For a moment she gazed into the mist and monotone that was Manhattan, and then stared over the city toward the channels of the sea.

"Suppose those lights are the Europa?" she asked Tony.

"It left Quarantine before 7; it's somewhere there," Tony said patiently. "Let's not go back in."

His cigaret case clicked open. The light of his match made a brief Rubens; buff satin of her bare shoulders, green of her evening dress, stark white of his shirt-bosom, and heads bent together. Some one inside the apartment danced past the French windows, touched the door handle, perceived that the terrace was occupied, and danced away to the accompaniment of music that came from the radio.

"Guests take possession these days," Eve continued. "If you suggest bridge, they tear up the rugs and dance. If I'd asked them to dance—and had an orchestra—they'd have played bridge—or made fudge—"

In Georgia's Fields and Streams

By H. A. CARTER

HACKEE THE CHIPMUNK.

An item on chipmunks has appeared in this column before. I am presenting another today and still others shall follow from time to time as long as I am amused and instructed by these industrious, furry, earthbound birds. Thompson-Seton, in one of his delightful books, refers to the chipmunk as a four-legged bird; an allusion that is entirely baffling to one not familiar with this charming aviotherian (if I may coin a word!) animals. With the scolding propensities of a blue jay the consuming curiosity of a crow, the foolhardiness of an English sparrow, and the beauty of a thrush, it takes all the fur and teeth and non-nucleated redblood cells that the little beast can muster to demonstrate his squirrel kinship.

My neighbor chipmunk down the street has been rushing excitedly in every direction for several days. Motion with the chipmunk resolves into a series of undulations, as if the little animal were pursuing a course along the plotted path of alternating current or radio waves, with occasional stops at almost any wave whatever. When motion is resumed, the tail follows through the established curve as if there had been no interruption at all. It is a silken motion; a suddenly embodied motion, as of wind over hills.

These movements are equally graceful in either vertical or horizontal planes. While our chipmunks are mainly terrestrial, I have seen them far above ground, searching for the seeds and nuts of various trees. And when a few arching leaps will not carry them to the safety of the burrow, the nearest tree trunk offers a vantage point from which to scold the obnoxious cat or dog or man that interrupts the safety of the horizon of his narrow landscape.

Of course you realize why these animals are so very busy these days. They are one of the few hibernating animals in North America. A store of grain and seeds, of nuts and acorns must be amassed before winter lays a blast of cold across the land and brings a new set of birds into competition with these squirrels of the ground. And so they scurry, here and there, over mountainous tufts of grass, stopping at impossibly deep gullies washed by the last rain, and lug cheek pouch after cheek pouch of seed to the underground nest, where winter will find them well prepared. They will enter the darkness of the winter den and the long hibernating sleep dull of coat and emerge in the spring lustrous and shiny in a nuptial pelage most exciting to the hearts of black-eyed lady chipmunks.

WOUNDED LAST WEEK, YOUTH, 17, NEAR DEATH

Shot accidentally a week ago, Vandie A. Smith, 17, of Route 2, Austell, was in a critical condition Tuesday night at the Georgia Baptist hospital, according to his mother, Mrs. V. A. Smith Sr. and hospital attaches.

Young Smith was wounded while on a hunting trip near his home with a cousin, Leroy Dickerson, 16, of Jonesboro road, Lakewood. The boy's mother said that Dickerson stumbled and fell into a ditch, the jar discharging his shot gun. The charge entered Smith's back and several pellets penetrated vital organs. He was taken to the hospital immediately by Mrs. Smith and neighbors. His condition Tuesday was declared dangerous by physicians.

ADAMS OPPOSES HIKE IN RATES ON MELONS

Freight Increase Would Ruin Industry, Farm Head Tells Hearing.

Increase in Georgia watermelon rates would mean the ruin of the watermelon industry, Commissioner of Agriculture G. C. Adams Tuesday told the state public service commission. Adams appeared at a hearing on application by the railroads for higher rates.

There has been a steady decrease in the acreage of watermelons during the last several years, and a decided decrase since 1931 because farmers find it so difficult to raise a profitable crop they are gradually abandoning it, Adams said. "When a crop is abandoned that means keener competition in other crops."

M. W. Thomas, assistant freight agent of the Central of Georgia railroad, presenting the case for the carriers, said that the proposed increase would average about 250 per cent. Thomas said that the Central handles the bulk of the melon crop and has been handling it for years at a loss. Under present intrastate rates in Georgia and nearby states the movement of watermelons has been the least remunerative of any farm commodity, he said.

Members of the commission said they will take the case under advisement at the conclusion of the hearing.

R. B. Gwathmey, of Washington, represents the carriers, and Henry A. Brown, of Atlanta, represents the state department of agriculture and L. E. Holloway & Company, distributors.

WHEN we opened our store on Peachtree Street almost twenty years ago, even my best friends were uncertain of our success. At that time all of the leading business houses were on Whitehall Street, and our location was regarded by all as speculative, and by many as distinctly disadvantageous.

TO attract and hold patronage I depended upon an avowed policy of quality merchandise, sold at honest prices. Customers thronged my store on the opening day, and they have been coming back ever since.

OUR original policy has remained unchanged to this day, and has been rewarded by the confidence and support of the buying public of the South.

Miss Dorothy Nabors Weds Mr. Parkman at Home Ceremony

A wedding of social interest was that of Miss Dorothy Nabors and Serrano Parkman Jr., which was solemnized Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Caldwell in the presence of the families and close friends. The ceremony, marked by simplicity, took place before an improvised altar, banked with palms and ferns, interspersed with pedestal baskets filled with white gladiolus and seven-branched candelabra, holding slender white tapers. Bridal music, including "Liebstraum," "To a Wild Rose" and "At Dawning", was played by Miss Helen Schaid. Preceding the ceremony Fred Barnes sang "I Love You Truly," and Miss Marion Smith sang "Because." The marriage service was performed by Dr. W. H. Major, pastor of Capitol Avenue Baptist church.

Davis Johnston was the groomsman and Mrs. George L. Goss was bridesmaid. Mrs. Goss wore a fall model of eel-gray crepe with accessories of black, and a corsage of Tallisman roses and swainsona. Miss Kathleen Nabors, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and wore a becoming ensemble of brown crepe with hat and shoes of matching tones, and her flowers were a corsage of Tallisman roses.

The lovely bride was given in marriage by her brother, Alton Nabors. She wore a fall model of blue crepe, combined with satin, with a hat of blue French felt and accessories of blue. Her corsage was of white roses and lilies of the valley, tied with white satin ribbon. She was met at the altar by the bridegroom and his brother, Clarence Parkman, his best man.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell entertained at an informal reception Punch was served by Misses Hortense Brown, Mildred McGuire, Louise Magbee and Mrs. Isaach Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Parkman left on a trip to Chicago, Toronto, Niagra Falls and Buffalo. They will be at home after September 1 in Atlanta.

Friendly Counsel

BY CAROLINE CHATFIELD.

Problems of general interest submitted by readers will be discussed in this column. Correspondence invited. Your name held in confidence. Write Miss Chatfield, care The Atlanta Constitution.

Dear Miss Chatfield: I have a double-barreled question to ask you. I am engaged to be married to a man that lives far away. Due to the exigencies of his job and to finances as well, he is requesting that I go to him to be married. In this way we will save the expenses of a home wedding, which no matter how simple is always costly. My parents have no objection to our marriage, but they vigorously oppose the plan for me to go to my fiance. Mother says I am a fool to consider such a proposition. The other question is this: I was married when very young, a secret marriage that was annulled two weeks later. It is very unlikely that my fiance would ever hear about it. Should I tell him? HARASSED.

Answer: "There is nothing hidden that shall not be revealed." While this sentence was spoken with reference to the hereafter, it is terribly true as applied to the here and now. Murder outs, marriage outs, and most other sensational stories out. A woman is a fool to withhold from her fiance the truth about such a vital matter as a former marriage. No man could ever have his confidence completely restored in a woman who had married him without telling him the truth about such a matter; that is, if he discovered the truth subsequent to his marriage, which in all probability he would.

Human nature is pretty much the same and most of us can forgive a friend or a loved one for any injury more quickly than we can forgive him for deceiving us. The reason for this is crystal clear: We instinctively confide in those we love. There is some quality in love that urges us to tell all and trust the loved one to understand and to forgive, if that be necessary. Consequently, when we discover that we have been duped, we are sick and sore and resentful.

As for your plan to go to your fiance to be married, it seems to be practical, provided your mother or father goes with you. Sentimentally, such a plan leaves something to be desired, but these are days of strain and stress, days when economic considerations must frequently override romantic prejudices. Before you buy your ticket and complete your arrangements for marriage, be sure you have cleared up the matter that may make a revision of the present schedule necessary.

NURSERYMEN DISCUSS AGRICULTURAL CODE

Members of the Southern Nurserymen's Association within a 100-mile radius of Atlanta met at the Biltmore hotel on Tuesday night and discussed a code which would come within the meaning of the agricultural adjustment act.

No official action was taken, but the ideas developed will be taken before the meeting of the association in Jacksonville the latter part of the month, where the code will be discussed further and acted on.

Culbertson on Contract

Inciting a Slam

BY ELY CULBERTSON.
World's Champion Player and Greatest Card Analyst.

Often the result of defensive bids is to incite the side which has opened the bidding to overbid and to attempt contracts that may, in the last analysis, prove unmakable. Sometimes—though far less frequently—these unmakable contracts are made.

In the recent American Whist League Congress held at Hanover, N. H., in July, one of the interesting hands in the last session of the pair event was the one below. Obviously North and South can make five spades without too great effort, losing on the hand two diamond tricks. However, at one table East and West decided to force North and South above a game contract in spades with dire results—not because their cards could not accomplish a set of the adverse contract, but because of errors in the play.

East, Dealer.
North and South vulnerable.

The bidding: (Figures after bids refer to numbered explanatory paragraphs.)

East	South	West	North
Pass(1)	1♠	Pass	3♠(2)
4◇(3)	4♠(4)	5◇(5)	Pass
Pass	6♠(6)	Pass	Pass
Dbl.(7)	Pass	Pass	Pass

1—East should have opened the bidding with one diamond.
2—A slight overbid. The hand is very strong distributionally, but lacks the honor-tricks for a Jump Raise.
3—Designed simply as a nuisance Overcall.
4—Again a slight overbid.
5—Obviously only a nuisance Raise.
6—South is annoyed. While he does not feel that on the bidding he has a good play for six, he argues that the chance of making six is probably about as good as that of making five, and in consequence decides to go the whole way and play for either a top or bottom on the board.
7—Holding two Aces, this is quite natural.

The Opening lead was the diamond Knave, and when the Declarer took stock of his Dummy, it was, of course, perfectly obvious to him that he must be defeated at least 1 trick, provided the hand was played in the normal manner. However, there was still fighting for him the element of psychology. He knew that East considered him to be a very fine player. He reasoned that East would not believe that he would go to six spades with more than a singleton diamond in his hand. Therefore, to strengthen the impression that his holding was only a singleton in the suit bid by the opponents, without the slightest hesitation he dropped the Queen on East's King. East, thinking to bring to a quick end the agony of defense, now laid down the heart Ace South ruffed, and was eventually able to play the hand in such a manner as to fulfill his contract.

The actual play of the hand is far from easy, even with East's defensive error. Of course, the play of the heart Ace is particularly atrocious. If South holds losing hearts there is no place in the world where they may be discarded. Any other lead, even the return of a diamond, and even if South's play of the Queen was not a falsecard, is much better, and, of course, with any other return, the ambitious overbid must be defeated.

TOMORROW'S HAND.

If East has opened the bidding with one heart and South has subsequently doubled West's six-spade bid, what should be North's Opening lead in view of the Double?

Miss Jane Raoul Extended Invitatio To Attend Terpsichorean Club Bal

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Aug. 22.—Return to a tradition of the old south when society life was never limited to cliques and to one community, but embraced the "best people" of a state, even of the section, who knew one another and exchanged courtesies, is hinted in the invitation which the exclusive Terpsichorean Club of Raleigh, N. C., has extended to 12 Asheville debutantes and groups from other North Carolina cities that they make their bow to the society of their state at the Terpsichorean Club's ball September 22, in Raleigh's new memorial auditorium. Among the Asheville girls invited is the granddaughter of a prominent Atlanta woman, Mrs. W. G. Raoul. She is Miss Jane Raoul, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Raoul.

Asheville just now is being made by southern people their summer mecca, as usual, and sports share with dancing their chief interest. Paul Whiteman and his orchestra played for a huge dance on Tuesday night which was sponsored by local groups, and the Junior League cotillon was the high water mark of s ciety's August program, although "revue" of music and dancing slat for Thursday night of this week wi provide rivalry in social interest. Tl headline event in golf is the Ashevil Country Club's thirty-seventh annu invitation tournament.

Visitors of national note at Grov Park inn are United States Senat James Hamilton Lewis, of Illinoi former Georgian, and Louis McHenr Howe, secretary to President Roosvelt.

Lois Chooses Clothes That Make Her Feel and Look Better

BY FLORENCE La GANKE.

Lois telephoned Nancy to see whether she would be at home that afternoon. "I want to talk to you about clothes. They are getting to be quite a problem and I remember that you always looked comfortable and well dressed. Will you help me choose my clothes?"

Nancy said she would be at home, that a comfortable chair and fresh tea would be waiting and that all her clothes knowledge was at Lois' disposal. That is the kind of a friend that Nancy was.

When Lois came in Nancy noticed the drawn lines about Lois' face. She saw, too, that she carried herself rather heavily. Only too well could Nancy remember how she felt in the month that just preceded the arrival c Baby Susan. She remembered, to that new clothes bucked her up tr mendously. So it was to be ne clothes for Lois as the first part c her prescription.

"Let's go shopping tomorrow, Loi I saw a dress that was just mad for you. It is of soft silk in a sma all-over pattern. The neckline is fir ished with surplice collar that hang in soft folds. Then I saw a dress whic you can use as a hostess dress at hom It had a wide bertha finished with soft ruffle and the dress tied over a the waist line. That allows for expansion when necessary.

"We won't get any shiny satins, n clear bright colors. Both of these ar trying to complexions and to figure They make a person conspicuous, to We might look for some two-piec dresses for they hide large hips. chose the wide lapels or bertha o that other dress because it hides larg bust. Don't forget the large part tha fresh crisp organdy bows play i freshening both a frock and a perso Wear one rather high at the neck lin It draws eyes away from the rest c the figure. Really, I think many c the clothes are just made for you thes days. Let's shop."

Lois is interested in "layettes." I you are, too, send a stamped, self-ac dressed envelope for your copy of th leaflet. Address Nancy Page in car of The Atlanta Constitution.

TARZAN THE APE MAN No. 129

By Edgar Rice Burroughs

Rex Maxon
L-129

When the other elephants began to show ominous signs of restlessness, Tarzan pointed to the wounded one and shook his head doubtfully. The great creatures looked at their wounded comrade mournfully, gathering about him, as he did not arise.

They commenced to trumpet weirdly as though beckoning the riders to leave the dying elephant to his fate. "They know," whispered Holt to Jean, "the poor brute's going to die." Tarzan motioned to Parker to mount another of the herd but Parker did not move.

Though he well understood what Tarzan desired, Jean's father refused to dismount from the wounded elephant. Seeing this, Holt said: "He wants you to change mounts." "No, no—we must go on," insisted Parker. "But, father—he's dying!" explained Jean.

As she spoke, Holt suddenly realized the significance of a dying elephant and knew what was passing through his partner's mind. Reacting to the thought, Holt cried: "Yes—it's our big chance!" "I know!" said Parker, "our one chance—the Graveyard—only he can take us!"

By VICTOR EUBANK.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—(AP)—Trading activity in the bond market continued on a restricted scale today and prices generally were inclined to shift about uncertainly.

Although there was a late mild rally in some of the secondary groups, apparently in sympathy with improvement in stocks, the close was irregular. Sales totaled approximately $8,600,000, par value, and the average for 60 domestic corporate loans was off one-tenth of a point.

While the majority of utilities and rails drifted to slightly lower levels, some issues in these groups advanced. The industrials, as a whole, finished about even.

Among utility and industrial issues that recovered a point or more were some of I. G. Chemical, International Telephone, Remington Rand, United States Rubber and Vanadium.

United States Government Securities were dull but firm. Foreign obligations were highly mixed.

By GILES L. FINDLEY.

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—(AP)—A sharp advance in rye gave wheat a firmer tone late today and turned prices higher.

Buying by millers and elevators, chiefly removal of hedges, found rye vulnerable, and the price quickly shot up 5 cents a bushel, May going to 82 5-8 cents, the maximum advance permitted in one day. This also carried wheat up, the December delivery touching 97 cents before profit-taking wiped out almost 1 1-2 cents of the gain. Corn failed to follow and was easy at the close.

Wheat finished firmer, 3-8 to 1 3-4 cents higher than yesterday's close and somewhat under the day's peak, corn easy, 3-8 to 5-8 lower, oats 1-2 to 3-4 higher, rye 4 1-2 to 4 7-8 up, and provisions steady to 15 cents advanced.

Previous to the upswing in rye, all grains had more or less marked time most of the session.

Corn closed fractionally lower in light trade and an erratic market. Some rains were reported in the west, but the territory that required moisture, chiefly east of the Mississippi river, received none. Some traders ascribe uncertainty in corn to a lack of belief as to the outcome of the government's purchases of hogs.

Oats were active. Covering by early sellers brought gains at the close of more than 1-2 cent a bushel. Previously oats had swung in a narrow range of only 1-2 cent a bushel.

Provisions firmed in sympathy with the rise in wheat and rye.

Railroad Earnings.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—July operating results of railroads reporting so far show substantial improvement over a year ago, but a smaller ratio of gain than was shown for June.

The first five carriers to publish figures had net operating income of $7,897,000 compared with $2,841,000 in July, 1932, a gain of 170 per cent. The aggregate June net operating income of these roads was 224 per cent greater than in the corresponding month of last year.

Gross revenues for the same roads in July amounted to $29,909,000 against $23,968,000 in July, 1932, an increase of 24.7 per cent. The figure exceeded the June gross of $28,867,000 by about $4.25 per cent.

Earnings.

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—A net income of $469,764.09 for the six months ended June 30, last, was reported today by the Union Tank Car Company.

The figure was arrived at after deductions for interest on equipment trust certificates and estimated federal income taxes and is equal to approximately 39 cents a share on the 1,200,000 shares of capital stock outstanding.

During a corresponding period last year the company showed earnings of $524,647. Current assets this year were reported at $10,997,286.17 and current liabilities at $442,879.05 as compared to $14,344,560 and $314,632, respectively, in 1932.

The balance sheet carried total assets of June 30 at $42,826,011.32 against $45,952,597 last year.

By JOHN L. COOLEY.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—(AP)—After early irregularity, stocks swung into a fairly brisk rally during the late trading today and net gains of 1 to 2 points were numerous at the close.

With rye advancing the limit and other grains, as well as cotton, rising in sympathy, equity traders found the line of least resistance upward. Activity quickened a bit in the last hour as prices improved; previously, the market had been the familiar dull affair. Dealings throughout looked highly professional, and an obvious scarcity of offerings facilitated the rise. Transactions totaled approximately 2,000,000 shares.

Motor trucks, rails and packing issues found particular favor. Other divisions, with the exception of utilities, did well enough when rising tendencies got under way. Light and power company equities appeared to be under the shadow of rate cutting developments.

General Motors was an active favorite and up 2 points net. Chrysler, also in demand, jumped 2 1-4. Du Pont gained nearly 4, Auburn 2 and Nash about 1 1-2. United States Steel, American Telephone, Celanese, National Biscuit, Baltimore & Ohio, Delaware & Hudson and International Telephone improved 1 to more than 2.

Wall Street gave some attention to the credit expansion noted in the current condition statement of reporting federal reserve member banks. The total rise of $45,000,000 was the largest in about two months. "All other," or commercial loans rose $18,000,000. The large gain in holdings of United States government securities represented takings of the new treasury issues by interior banks.

American Metal Market, reporting a decrease in steel output, said: "No precise forecast can be made of the rate from which production will eventually turn upward because the recent and prospective decreases are caused by the completion of backlog business built up while buyers were taking advantage of old prices. . . . To a large extent the code removes the ground that large buyers had for demanding concessions but the mills can still establish additional quantity differentials which represent differences in cost in filling large and small orders, respectively. While steel producers are indisposed to express themselves, there is reason to assume they are fairly well satisfied with the code."

A stock exchange seat sold today for $200,000, an increase of $15,000 over the previous sale.

FOURTH PRICE HIKE IS SEEN FOR TIRES

AKRON, Ohio, Aug. 22.—(AP)—The fourth 10 per cent increase in the price of tires and tubes since early spring was reported due in rubber circles here today. Heads of the Akron district rubber corporations refused to either deny or confirm the reports, which said the increase will be announced in a week.

Brokers' Views

STOCK OPINIONS.

FENNER, BEANE & UNGERLEIDER—The break-out of the market on the side of advancing prices would be expected to create further constructive market sentiment, and provide a basis for a continuation of Tuesday's late rallying tendencies.

DOBBS & CO.—If the advances Tuesday induce increased public buying, the movement could go considerably further and we continue to look for an upward trend.

BEER & CO.—The defenite emergence of the industrial and rail averages to new high levels Tuesday indicates an active resumption of the uptrend.

LIVINGSTON & CO.—The buoyant tone of the market on the advance following the recent support it received when grains were weak points to higher prices and these may be reached in the near future notwithstanding the absence of trade improvement.

COTTON OPINIONS.

FENNER, BEANE & UNGERLEIDER—Indications point to large ginnings but the movement to market indicates they may come under expectations. The ginnings are not apt to have much effect on the market unless very large, or smaller than expected.

HUBBARD BROS. & CO. TO DOBBS & CO.—We believe the market is now in a position to respond readily to anything of an encouraging or constructive character.

BEER & CO.—We continue to favor the long side on substantial setbacks.

LIVINGSTON & CO.—We do not look for anything but minor reactions from present prices and with the tone as strong as it is any encouraging news could easily push prices sharply upward.

GRAIN OPINIONS.

FENNER, BEANE & UNGERLEIDER—The wheat market still has a very firm undertone as buying of apparently good character develops on all breaks at present levels.

LIVINGSTON & CO.—There was good buying of oats Tuesday and its strong statistical position recommends its purchase at present levels.

CURB LIST HOLDS IN NARROW RANGE

By BERNARD S. O'HARA.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—(AP)—The curb market moved within an extremely narrow range today. A sprinkling of selling was in evidence at times but such minor losses as occurred were largely eradicated in a last hour rally which advanced a number of issues fractions to 2 points net.

The dullness of the current movement made for considerable caution among traders as reflected in the small volume of dealings. Utilities were again somewhat neglected and leaders closed a trifle irregular. Alcohols finished fractions to a point higher, while larger gains were recorded by a number of industrials.

Allied Mills rose 2 points in heavy dealings. Armour Company firmed a half point in active dealings, while Hiram Walker, General Tire & Rubber and Newmont Mining each added a point.

Transfers approximated 273,000 shares compared with 238,000 for Monday.

ATLANTA SPOT COTTON.

Atlanta spot cotton closed steady, 5 points up, at 9.25.

Receipts, 11; shipments, 601; stocks, 191,756.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22—(AP)—Slight declines were followed by advances in cotton today on trade buying and covering promoted by an absence of selling pressure in any material volume and rallies in the grain and stock markets.

Cotton for December delivery after selling off to 9.52 at the start, advanced to 9.75 and closed at 9.71, with the general market ending steady at net advances of 10 to 17 points.

Initial prices were 5 to 9 points lower on southern selling and liquidation. Offerings were light, however, while the fairly steady showing of Liverpool brought in some buying at the declines and the market soon turned steadier. Unfavorable features in the weather and crop news also led to some increase in the demand.

Houses with Wall Street connections were a little more active on the buying side toward the close, while there also seemed to be a little continental buying on the advance which carried active months about 15 to 20 points net higher. Closing quotations were a few points off from the best under realizing and a renewal of southern selling.

Exports today 16,410, making 392,548 so far this season. Port receipts 23,976. United States port stocks 2,904,825.

Liverpool cables reported a quiet, steady market there with offerings light and some scattered buying on less favorable trade accounts. Reports from the south told of continuel murky weather or showers in eastern belt sections with increasing complaints of boll weevil activity.

Except for a little selling at the start, southern offerings were little in evidence during the day, and the absence of hedging was attributed by some local traders to a slow spot demand in the south.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON ADVANCES 13-15 POINTS

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 22.—(AP)—Cotton trading was quiet today until within the final half hour when activity quickened and prices advanced in sympathy with a sharp upturn in stocks. The maximum gain was 22 to 23 points from the lows. There was a slight reaction at the end on realizing and the market closed steady with prices showing net gains for the day of 13 to 15 points.

The opening was quiet and easier although Liverpool cables were fully as good as due and sterling was a shade easier. Private cables stated that there was small scattered buying in the Liverpool market. Manchester cabled that there was an improved demand for cloth and a fair inquiry for yarns.

Liverpool is due tomorrow on New Orleans 8 to 9 penny points up.

Detroit Snaps Washington's Streak With 10-8 Victory

BREAK of the DAY!
By Ralph McGill

There Isn't Any Reason Why Unknown Shouldn't Win National Amateur

Press dispatches inform that Mr. Johnny Goodman, the national open champion, is playing exhibition rounds with well-known professionals so that his game will be polished up in time for the amateur which he is supposed to win next month at Cincinnati.

I am well aware of the fact that it makes no difference at all but I do not think Johnny Goodman will win the national amateur. A recent perusal of his play in winning the open tournament reveals anew the many times that Johnny Goodman was wild from the tee and wild with his iron only to pitch on and get down with some amazing putting.

This may be skill. And yet again it may be luck. And there is no doubt but that it was a mixture of skill and luck. And one never knows when the luck will run thin and leave one depending entirely on skill. And no matter how skillful a person may be he will tell you that it is most embarrassing indeed to be left dependent entirely on his own resources and minus any little nudge from the little goddess of luck.

If Johnny Goodman did not use up all his luck in the open then he had best quit golf and go in for something serious. The odds, I notice, are 10 to 1 against Johnny Goodman. They used to be 2 to 1 and 3 to 1 against Bobby Jones. And once, I believe, he was quoted at even money against the field—something which will never happen again. The Goodman odds seem to be a little short but then maybe not.

As a matter of fact there isn't a really stand-out golfer left since Jones retired. And so one selection is as good as another.

Johnny Fisher, who is reported to know the Kenwood course better than any one of the favorites; Gus Moreland, another excellent golfer; Sandy Sommerville, the champion; Lawson Little, Don Moe and Charley Seaver are just a few of those who look like prospects.

And yet there isn't any real reason why some comparatively unknown should not come along and win it. In fact I think one will do just that. There is Charley Yates, for instance. Given a run of luck such as Goodman had the Atlanta golfer would come home with the title.

The amateur has been a curious sort of a tournament since Jones left it. Each year some unknown comes hustling along and wins or almost wins. It all depends where the luck falls.

LOOK AT THOSE BRAVES.

Those Giants have been kicking up so much dust in the National league that it was with something of a gasp that one noted the Braves as they bustled into second place yesterday by knocking down the Pirates. They beat the Pirates, a good ball club, four consecutive games.

It is entirely possible that the Braves are on the way and will pass the Giants. The Braves are but seven games out of first place and there is much more than a mathematical chance for them to win. The Giants, with only one .300 hitter, needs only a pitching slump to tumble like the stock market in 1929.

There would be a lot of baseball men glad to see Bill McKechnie jockey the Braves into the pennant. He is an old-fashioned baseball man and one who won a pennant for the Cardinals a few years ago only to receive the customary accolade from Big-Hearted Sam Breadon—exile to some other club.

But whhhhhhhaaaaaat a race it is in the National—especially now that the Braves have put on war paint and are on the war path!

The Giants need only to stumble—just once.

THE WESTERN FAN.

The lights were low. The music was soft. And on the screen at the Rialto the hero leaped on his horse, shot the villain and dashed away with the gal.

And down in front there was applause from Robert Lee Dodd—the young man from Kingsport, Tenn., who made history for Bob Neyland and who now coaches backs at Georgia Tech. Nothing but westerns ever show at Kingsport and Robert Lee Dodd grew up on them.

I started to chide him for being at a western and applauding. But then I could think of no valid reason for being there myself except that I like to see the villain die and the powers of evil vanquished. Just a couple of small town boys going to the show.

THAT WORLD FAIR FOOTBALL GAME.

It is very probable that the World Fair football game, scheduled for Thursday night at Chicago, will prove very little if anything.

The players, a collection of stars from the two chief sections of the country, will not be in condition for a real game and will not have practiced long enough to develop any real timing on plays—hence little teamwork.

The chief interest in their play lies in plays which will likely never become a part of football. That is the right to forward pass from any point back of the line. The rule now calls for a pass to be made at leave five yards back of the scrimmage line.

This was a rule change sought at the meetings last fall by the coaches who teach the Warner system. Their style of play calls for intricate double and triple passes. Coaches, who were asked to report the proposed rule change favorably, refused to do so. The opinion was pretty unanimous that the Warner system coaches merely wanted an opportunity to hand the ball forward close behind the line and thus aid in the deceptiveness of their style of play.

Permission was given in the World Fair game to try out this style of play and the team from the west may be expected to use it.

Don Zimmerman is the only southern star entered and he is expected to play most of the game with the eastern backfield.

THE NATIONAL TENNIS MEET.

There is mild resentment among the Ellsworth Vines followers at the tendency in some quarters to regard the American champion as washed up and ready for retirement.

It does seem a bit ridiculous to be considering a young man of 20 as being ready for retirement from the big show which he dominated in this country. He lost to Jack Crawford, the Australian; to Bunny Austin and Fred Perry, the Englishmen, and last week lost to Frank Shields.

These four consecutive defeats mean simply that Vines is badly off his game. The old-womanish attitude of the lawn tennis association is no doubt somewhat responsible. Vines has an admirable chance in the national. It is to be a remarkable tournament with entries from Australia, England, Japan and perhaps a few more nations. In addition of course to our own stars, some of whom are a bit miffed at being left off the cup team and who will be in there leveling and trying to remove Vines and Allison from the scene.

MAJORS FAVOR INTER-LEAGUE SERIES FOR 1934

Veeck's Plan of Mid-Season Games Seems Likely.

By Alan Gould,

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—(AP)—The re-action among baseball leaders today, especially the National league, was distinctly favorable to the proposal of William L. Veeck, president of the Chicago Cubs, for a radical departure in schedule-making by which the two big baseball circuits would try out a mid-season series of inter-league games in 1934.

Officials of four other National league clubs, St. Louis, Pittsburgh, Brooklyn and Philadelphia, agreed at least that the proposal calls for serious consideration, under existing conditions, as a definite measure to help revive interest and improve finances. Support also came from American leaguers but was less general.

DODGERS, INDIANS FAVORABLE

Presidents of two clubs, Alva Bradley, of Cleveland, and Stephen W. McKeever, of Brooklyn, came out flatly in favor of the inter-league plan.

"It's a good scheme," McKeever told the Associated Press. "We need some such stimulant and I am in favor of it."

"I heartily agree we should have some system of inter-league games," said Bradley. "In fact, I've advocated a definite plan for such games. For instance, I believe inter-league games should be worked into the regular schedule, in the middle of the season. Four such games in a season for each team in the league would give the fans a good idea of comparative skill."

Sam Breadon, president of the St. Louis Cardinals, declared: "It sounds like an interesting experiment and is well worth looking into."

The Pittsburgh Pirates are "open-minded" on the proposal, according to President William Benswanger.

President Gerald Nugent, of the Phillies, likewise is willing to discuss the idea.

TIGERS DISAGREE.

While conceding some advantages in the inter-league plan, especially for one-club towns, Frank J. Navin, president of the Detroit club, expressed disagreement with Veeck on the general subject of baseball's declining interest. Navin said the falling off in attendance was no greater than in other forms of entertainment, predicted a recovery with a business upswing and put himself on record as favoring the "status quo."

Mid-season is the proper time for inter-league competition, in the opinion of John A. Heydler, president of the National league, who shares the view of Veeck that the "critical" condition of baseball's business this year calls for aggressive action.

"Veeck is a progressive," said Heydler, "his views certainly will carry much weight in any plans we make for next year. Certainly we cannot afford to stand pat, as he says, and rely on a return of the good old days."

ALBANY MEET OPENS TODAY

ALBANY, Ga., Aug. 22.—(AP)—Contenders for the championship of the seventh annual Radium Springs invitation golf tournament face an 18-hole qualifying test tomorrow in the opening day of play over this sporty course near Albany.

A number of well-known amateurs from Florida and Alabama are expected to compete along with the best in Georgia. By reason of its tradition, this tournament ranks next in importance to the annual state championship.

Billy Oliver, of Valdosta, won a year ago. Forrest Adair, of Atlanta, the 1932 medalist, will be among those seeking the crown. The 16 low scorers in the qualifying round will enter the championship flight first round of match play Thursday. The finals are set for Saturday.

Halverstadt, Moss Win at Charlotte

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Aug. 22.—(AP) Wilmer Hines, Columbia, S. C., seeded No. 1, led a parade of seeded players into the third round of the mid-Atlantic tennis tournament here today, with none of the favored eight forced to extend himself.

Hines defeated W. F. Bell, Davidson, N. C., 6-3, 7-5. Lenoir Wright, No. 2, eliminated John Dowd, Raleigh, N. C., 6-3, 6-1. Jimmy Halverstadt, Atlanta, who was runner-up last year to Teddy Burwell, of Charlotte, absent this year from the entries, crushed D. F. Coleman, Charlotte, 6-0, 6-1.

Other results included:

Arthur Hendrix, Lakeland, Fla., No. 6, defeated Dean Hammond, Charlotte, 6-3, 6-1.

Howard Moss, Atlanta, defeated J. W. McLean, Albemarle, N. C., 3-6, 12-10, 6-4.

Burts Boulware, Tallahassee, Fla., No. 8, defeated F. H. Scott, Davidson, 6-3, 6-1.

Ray White, Miami, Fla., No. 7, defeated Joe Grier, Charlotte, 6-2, 6-3.

Hudson Hamm, Fort Lauderdale, Fla., defeated Bob Lassiter, Charlotte, 6-1, 6-0.

Rain Postpones Women's Matches

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—(UP)—Rain again forced postponement of semi-final matches in the women's national tennis championships today.

Tomorrow, weather permitting, Helen Jacobs, defending champion, will meet Dorothy Round, of England, in the second semi-final singles match, and Mrs. Helen Wills Moody and Elizabeth Ryan will play Miss Round and Mary Heeley in the remaining doubles final.

The finals are scheduled for Thursday.

Goodman, Shute In 'Title' Match

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 22.—The "world championship" of golf probably will be decided at Miami in February in a match between Johnny Goodman, of Omaha, United States open champion, and Denny Shute, winner of the British open, Shute said upon his return home from England yesterday.

Arrangements for such a title test have not yet been completed," Shute said, "but I think the match will take place as the Miami Biltmore Club has been in communication with me since I won the championship at St. Andrews July 8.

Speer Loses To McMillen Here

In a battle of football stars, Jim McMillen, former University of Illinois athlete, defeated Frank Speer, formerly of Georgia Tech, Tuesday night at Ponce de Leon park, in one of the best cards that has been staged here in several weeks. Speer won the first fall with a series of body slams but lost the second fall and was unable to return for the third. It was a series of flying tackles and a body slam that knocked him out.

Action started with the preliminary when Hugh Wynne and Bill Cruselle wrestled to a draw. They threw the timer's bell across the ring, broke the timer's watch.

Dick Daviscourt defeated Ivan Vacturoff, giant Russian, in the semi-windup with a series of forearm blows and a body block.

Speer celebrated his first visit here in more than a year with an improved showing. He was faster than before and weaved out of difficult holds and secured others with apparent ease. His holds varied materially and his aggressiveness in winning the first fall won applause from the large crowd. He came back strong and apparently was on the way to another fall, but fell a victim to one of those flying tackles in which both were almost out. McMillen recovered and after holding to the ropes was able to leave the ring and return for the verdict. Speer had to be carried from the ring.

CHAMPLAIN WON BY SUN ARCHER

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—(AP)—Willis Sharpe Kilmer's Sun Archer, a colt for which a great future was predicted following a successful juvenile campaign at Saratoga last year, today won his first race as a three-year-old when he led three high-class runners over one and one-eighth miles of mud to account for the Champlain handicap at the upstate course.

The small crowd that braved the showery weather to watch the thoroughbreds run over a rain-soaked racing strip backed Preston M. Burch's consistent mare, Tambour, into favoritism at 3 to 5. At the end of the journey, however, she was a sprawling third as Mrs. Dodge Sloane's Snapback, a late addition to the entries, finished a nose back of Sun Archer. Tambour was two lengths away.

Lightly regarded in the field that also included the Cuban Grand National winner, Allan Ryan's Larranaga, Sun Archer, under the guidance of Don Meade, set all the pace. He paid his backers 4 to 1 and returned his owner $2,870.

After the race, Jockey Willie Fronk, who rode Snapback, lodged a claim of foul but the stewards refused to agree with Mrs. Sloane's rider. Tambour kept fairly close to the stretch, but she weakened in the final drive as Snapback just missed catching the winner.

Americus Wins First Game Of Series

AMERICUS, Ga., Aug. 22.—(AP)—Americus took the opening game of the Georgia State league's post-season series here this afternoon, defeating Montezuma, 8 to 1.

The game was sewed up in the second inning when the Americus team turned four hits and two miscues into five runs. After that both teams played jam-up baseball.

The second game of the seven-game series will be played in Montezuma tomorrow and the remaining games will be alternated between these two cities.

Amateurs To Meet In Second Round

The second leg of the Southeastern amateur elimination boxing tournament will be held at the Cain street arena Friday night. An invading boxing team from Commerce, Ga., and two grudge fights will be added attractions on the program. The amateur fighters from Commerce, Ga., are members of the 444th C. C. Company. Coach Earl Dixon is bringing five of the leading fighters of the outfit to enter in the tournament. Promoter Oscar Buice has booked the entire visiting lineup to meet local battlers in their respective divisions.

Fans will witness two real battles. Last Friday night, Paul Byman and Jack Crow, light heavies, slammed each other all over the ring for three hectic rounds. At the end of the battle the referee raised Byman's hands. Crow disputed the decision and the pair tangled in a free for all in the dressing room. Both fighters asked for a return bout on Friday night's show. They have been booked.

Battling Luky and Kid Pat are strangers to the fans at the amateur shows. Sunday Lucky and Pat had an argument. Monday they called on the promoter and asked permission to settle their argument in a battle to the limit Friday night. Promoter Buice explained that he could not book a no-limit fight but that he thought they could get satisfaction in the regulation three rounds. They will battle.

Cagle and Kelly Buy Pro Eleven

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—(UP)—Chris "Red" Cagle of Army gridiron fame and John "Shipwreck" Kelly, former Kentucky football player, today announced that they had purchased the Brooklyn football club of the National league from William Dwyer and his associates.

It is understood that Cagle and Kelly turned over about $25,000 cash in the transaction.

Cagle played with the Giants for two seasons, and Kelly was with them for half of last season. They are trying to have Captain John McEwan, former Army, Oregon and Holy Cross coach, take charge of the club this fall.

MRS. ANDREWS RETAINS TITLE

VANDALIA, Ohio, Aug. 22.—An automobile salesman from Clinton, Ind., was crowned trapshooting's champion of champions in today's feature event of the grand American handicap tournament—the battle between holders of state titles.

H. L. Cheek, who has been shooting clay targets only three years, outclassed a field of 35 other state champions or runners-up, and when the final scores were posted it was found that Cheek had cracked 197 out of a possible 200 targets to nose out Paul Earle, of Starr, S. C., by a margin of one.

In anther event, John R. Taylor, of Newark, Ohio, competing with other professional shooters, won the North American clay target title in both singles and doubles. After trailing at the end of the first 100 targets in the doubles yesterday with 95, Taylor was back today with 92 for a total of 187. B. F. Duncan, of Lucy, Tenn., was second with 184, and Clyde Wells, of St. Louis, Mo., who led the field at the halfway mark, with 97, slipped into third place with 180.

Immediately after Taylor had won the doubles, he took to the traps again and crashed 197 out of 200 to take the singles crown, won last year by Fred Tomlin, of Glassboro, N. J.

F. J. Lightner, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, won the amateur doubles title with 187, nosing out Ted Renfro, of Dell, Mont., by a single target. Mark Arie, of Champaign, Ill., finished third with 184, and Frank Troeh, of Portland, Ore., fourth, with 181.

Mrs. Walter P. Andrews, of Atlanta, Ga., retained her women's doubles title by breaking 87 out of a possible 100, and Miss Alice Crothers, of Chestnut Hills, Pa., winner of the North American singles title yesterday, was second, with 76.

T. J. Cathan, of Chagrin Falls, Ohio, won the veterans race for shooters over 70 years of age. Cathan, who is 74, broke 94 clays. W. A. Tabor, of Union City, Okla., was second with 86, and Dr. R. S. Densmore, of Walla Walla, Wash., third with 85.

Al Simmons' Lead Somewhat Reduced

By the Associated Press.

The battle for second place in the American league's half of baseball's Big Six was drawn a little tighter yesterday as Heinie Manush connected with three hits in six times at bat and Al Simmons got only one safe blow in two games. As the result, Manush gained 2 points and Simmons lost 4 and today the White Sox outfielder led his Washington rival by only 3 points. Jimmy Foxx also dropped a point but his average of .360 still gave him a good working margin. The National league members of the sextet were idle.

The standings:

WOODCHUCKS WIN.

HOLLY CREEK CAMP, Ga., Aug. 22.—The Roosevelt Woodchucks, of Camp Crawford W. Long, Ga. F-7, defeated Murray county baseball team at the Chatsworth ball park by a score of 19 to 4.

Happy Days for Him

BILL McKECHNIE

Bill McKechnie is a very happy man this morning. Why? His Boston Braves battled their way to second place in the torrid National league race with a 14-inning 5-4 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates. The defeat sent the Pirates tumbling into a fourth-place tie with Chicago. McKechnie followers are predicting big things for him and his tribe. The Braves have won 14 games out of their last 17 played. (Story P. 2)

Quarterback Big Need Of Oglethorpe Team

Coach Harry Robertson Faces Tough Schedule With Mediocre Material This Season.

By Jack Troy.

The need of a quarterback eclipses all other worries Coach Harry Robertson may have concerning his 1933 Oglethorpe football eleven.

It's an old, old story. Oglethorpe has not had a fundamentally sound quarterback since the days of Kenneth A. (Nutty) Campbell. There have been quarterbacks and quarterbacks in the past few years, but they all lacked one prime requisite.

The Petrel quarterbacks since Campbell's time all have been fine ball carriers. For the most part, each could kick and pass. They were up to par in this respect.

But in the most important function, they failed. They were too absorbed in the business of kicking, running and passing to concentrate on running the team properly.

The quarterbacks were not to blame, however. Take Claud Herrin, Frank Anderson Jr. and Ray Walker. They were principally halfbacks. There were no quarterbacks around. And so Coach Robertson picked out his smartest backs for the important job of running the team.

BRAINY ENOUGH.

Herrin, Anderson and Walker were brainy enough. But they were ball carriers—good ball carriers. They could kick and pass besides run with the ball. Quarterbacks are not made overnight. There is unquestionably something to the axiom that good field generals are born, not made.

The same situation prevails at Oglethorpe another season. A field general is sorely needed—one who will forget about running with the ball and concentrate on running the team.

The way the season's schedule shapes up Oglethorpe should win four games, possibly five, if the gods of gridiron warfare are kind.

FOUR OR FIVE.

Four or five victories out of the nine-game schedule would constitute an excellent showing. Coach Robertson, a really excellent coach, would be justly satisfied.

Here is what the Oglethorpe eleven faces:

Sept. 21—Newberry at Ponce de Leon (night game).
Sept. 30—Alabama at Tuscaloosa.
Oct. 7—Manhattan at New York.
Oct. 14—Chattanooga there.
Oct. 19—Stetson at Ponce de Leon.
Oct. 28—Erskine at Hermance field.
Nov. 4—The Citadel at Augusta.
Nov. 11—Auburn there.
Nov. 30—Mercer there.

Oglethorpe and Newberry are about equal in strength. The Petrels should win the opener. But Alabama on the following Saturday offers a critical test for the Petrels. A physical and mental test. This is the hardest game on the schedule and Manhattan, in New York, is scheduled the following week.

STRONG FRESHMEN.

Chick Meehan had the strongest freshman team in history last season and is working to make Manhattan the leading team in New York.

Oglethorpe returns from the 2,000-mile trip to meet Chattanooga the following week. Ordinarily, the Petrels and Moccasins are evenly matched. But the Alabama and Manhattan games will do Oglethorpe no good physically or mentally.

The first rest spot comes against Stetson here on October 19. Oglethorpe should win this one. Erskine appears here the following week and the Petrels should win another.

MERCER GAME.

The Citadel game at Augusta will be tough. If the breaks fall their way, the Petrels should win. Auburn is expected to take the Petrels over the jump the next week and then comes the big game with Mercer at Hermance field.

This season the Mercer-Oglethorpe game should find both teams in about the same frame of mind and equal in strength. The Bears play Army, Navy and Georgia.

With this schedule and the fact that the material is none too promising, Coach Robertson plans to send the squad off to a flying start September 1, which is none too early.

Terry Hopeful Giants Forget Their Positions

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—(AP)—Bill Terry thinks the New York Giants are sure pennant winners if they just can forget the big lead they've already piled up in the National league race.

"So far," he said, "we haven't felt the strain. We haven't tightened up. The trick now is to stay loose, to be on our toes, to hustle, but not to tighten up. If we could just forget we were leading the league, it would be great. But it is difficult, especially when you are approaching the end of the race and you are keyed up by expectations of winning.

"One thing we will not do, and that is to count on our competitors to lose. We must win by winning, not by hoping someone else will lose.

"The Braves have helped us by knocking off the Pirates. They may continue to help us, but it may be the other way around. We have eight games with them and they are plenty tough. So far they've won 9 out of 14 from us."

Oriole Player Sold to Yankees

BALTIMORE, Md., Aug. 22.—(UP)—Sale of Don Heffner, young second-baseman of the Orioles, to the New York Yankees was announced here today by Charles H. Knapp, president of the Baltimore baseball club of the International league.

Four players and a cash sum will be turned over for Heffner, who is to report to the Yankees next season. Heffner has been a member of the Baltimore club for four seasons. He joined from the sandlots, is 22 years old and is batting .292 this season.

Miss Holm, Jarrett Planning Marriage

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 22.—(AP)—Eleanor Holm, champion swimmer and screen actress, and Arthur L. Jarrett, New York singer, filed notice here today of intention to wed.

Miss Holm gave her age as 19 and Jarrett said he was 25. It will be the first marriage for both. They would not disclose when they planned to marry.

Kenneth Campbell To Work Games

Kenneth A. (Nutty) Campbell, the best quarterback Oglethorpe university ever had and for several years a backfield coach at the Petrel school, is to return to the gridiron in the fall as an official.

Campbell, a brilliant attorney, is returning to the game after a year's absence. He resigned as backfield coach at Oglethorpe a year ago to devote all his time to the practice of law.

In the officiating field, Campbell already has arranged a full schedule of games for the 1933 season.

GREENBERG HITS HOMER TO BEAT LEADING SOLONS

Senators Halted After Piling Up 13 Games in a Row.

DETROIT, Aug. 22.—(AP)—Hank Greenberg, Detroit Tiger first baseman who came up from the south this spring as a doubtful starter, today put a story book finish on a thriller that gave the Tigers a 10 to 8 decision over the league leading Washington Senators, and broke their 13-game winning streak.

With the score tied and two out in the ninth inning, and the winning run on second base, Greenberg came to bat. Thomas had just relieved Crowder on the mound and succeeded in fanning Walker. Greenberg watched a strike and a ball—and then lifted the third pitch over the left field bleachers scoring Gehringer ahead of him.

It was not Greenberg's first appearance in the role of hero, for in the sixth the bengal slugger sent the ball over the fence, for his first homer, scoring Gehringer ahead of him, and himself bringing in the tying run. In the ninth inning, Gehringer's double with Fox on second had tied the score.

Washington used four pitchers in an attempt to stave off defeat, while Detroit used two. Weaver worked the first six innings, allowing seven hits and four runs. Russell followed him to the hill in the seventh, only to be succeeded by Crowder as the eighth inning ended with the Tigers two runs in the lead. Thomas relieved him and finished the game.

Sorrell allowed 14 hits, working until the eighth with two men out. Fischer finished the game for Detroit.

Myer, Manush, Schulte and Kuhel led the Washington attack, the first three poling out doubles. Kuhel hit three times and drove in as many runs.

HOWARD JONES REMAINS SILENT ABOUT WINNER

Trojan Coach Thinks Hanley Has Best Squad for Big Game.

By George Kirksey.

United Press Staff Correspondent.

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—(UP)—The boys were kicking a yellow football around the field under the floodlights at Dyche stadium as they wound up their nightly practice session for the East-West all-star football game at Soldier field Thursday night.

Howard Harding Jones, Southern California coach, who is handling the Western team, was standing off with a little group, talking of this and that when the interview was opened.

"What do you think about the game?" he was asked.

"It ought to be a good game," he replied.

"I mean, who's going to win?"

"I never make predictions. If someone had told me we were going to beat Notre Dame, 16-14, two years ago I would have called him a liar."

"You have seven of your own men from Southern California on the West team, while Dick Hanley has his team selected from many schools, so you ought to know pretty well what your team will do. Don't you think that gives the West the edge?"

"No. I think Hanley has the best squad."

"Won't Smith and Brown, your All-American tackles, and Williamson, your All-American center, smash up those All-American backs on the East before they get going?"

"They stopped Notre Dame, but I don't know whether Hanley's team is any better than Notre Dame."

"What do you think about the pass rule for this game, allowing passes to be made from any point behind the line of scrimmage?"

"It's hard to tell. It'll tend to keep the defense guessing, I suppose."

Lope Tenorio Faces Webb Tonight

Cain Street arena will be the scene of much action tonight when Lope Tenorio, sensational Philippine welter, clashes with California Billy Webb in the 10-round main go that promises to be a slugfest from start to finish. The card opens at 8:30 o'clock. Ladies will be admitted free with a paid escort.

LOPE TENORIO.

Tenorio needs no introduction to Atlanta fans as he has won a place in the hearts of the fistic followers for his tactics and ring generalship displayed in his previous appearances here. Lope has fought here twice and both times received great ovation from the fans. His pleasing style is only superseded by his natural ability to mix with his opponent. Tenorio tonight will display the same clever boxing and hard hitting that he possessed when he recently lost a 10-round decision to Jimmy McLarnin, present welterweight champion of the world. Lope has met and defeated many of the country's outstanding boys, and holds victories over such boys as Billy Petrolle, King Tut, Billy Wallace and Cecile Payne. Only a few weeks ago he easily won over Frankie Allen in the sixth round by a kayo.

The semi-windup will see Billy Pirkle, the Brookhaven lad, who has just returned to Atlanta after a victorious campaign throughout Florida, where he met some of the south's best featherweights, face the rough youngster from Cedartown, Johnny Tyler, who recently beat several boys in thrilling battles in Savannah.

Righthander Signed By Brooklyn Club

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—(AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers today announced the purchase of Emil Leonard, righthanded pitcher, from York of the New York-Pennsylvania league. He is to report immediately.

With a last place team Leonard has won 12 games and lost 13 this year.

Saratoga Yearling Sales for 1933 Off

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Aug. 22.—(AP)—Saratoga's annual yearling sales have ended for another year with little better financial success than they enjoyed in 1932, when the average fell to a new low for all time.

All told, 399 head passed under the hammer during the 12 nights of the sales. They brought a total of $467,326 for an average of $1,171. Prices generally had been higher during the first 11 nights, but the average declined sharply on account of the low bids last night when the final sales were made.

The Llangalon Farms, owned by Mr. and Mrs. John Hay Whitney, bid $6,500, highest of the evening, for a chestnut son of Imp. Sun Briar-Loved one. A colt by Sun Briar-Antipodes went to R. J. Housler for $3,500, and Frederick Johnson bid $3,200 for a bay colt by Luculitte-Superlette. C. V. Whitney paid $2,700 for a bay son of Sun Briar-Imp., Parade Trail.

The closing consignments were those of the Court Manor stud owned by W. S. Kilmer, and the Heronford and retirement studs.

BOSTON BEATS PIRATES, 5 TO 4, IN 14TH INNING

Bucs in Fourth-Place Tie With Cubs; Cards Rise.

By Jack Cuddy.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—(UP)—The baseball world today focused its attention on the Boston Braves, a club which is staging one of the season's most notable rallies just when a sturdy spurt was needed to gain a new contract for its Manager Bill McKechnie.

The Braves replaced Pittsburgh at second position in the National league standing today by defeating the Pirates, 5 to 4, in 14 innings. It was the only contest permitted by the weather in the National league, but it was an important game because it dropped the Pirates from second to a fourth-place tie with the Chicago Cubs, boosting St. Louis to third position.

14TH VICTORY.

It was the Braves' 14th win in their last 17 starts, and it was mighty reassuring to the McKechnie admirers because, although the Braves may not win the pennant, they now seem virtually assured of a first-division berth. The Braves haven't finished in first division since 1921 when they wound up in fourth place.

This is McKechnie's fourth year with the club. When he signed up in 1930 he was given full authority to rebuild the club from the ground up, and results were expected this year. If the Braves finish in first division, particularly second or third place, McKechnie probably will continue on as manager. The Braves haven't won a pennant since 1914.

Improved pitching has been the most important factor in the Boston rally, although the Braves are getting good hitting along with it. Pitchers Ben Cantwell, Ed Brandt, Fred Frankhouse, Tom Zachary and Huck Betts have been bearing down during the spurt. The acquisition of Infielder Pinkey Whitney from the Phillies about six weeks ago also helped.

BERGER HERO.

A home run by Wally Berger in the 14th gave the Braves their victory today over Pittsburgh, completing a sweep of the four-game series. It left the Braves just seven games behind the idle New York iGants, league leaders. Berger was the first man at bat in the 14th. His 22nd homer of the season was the second hit off Veteran Waite Hoyt, who took the mound in the fourth, replacing Hal Smith, who was removed for a pinch hitter. Frankhouse went the route for Boston, allowing 10 scattered hits.

KLEIN CONTENTED.

Chuck Klein, 'tis said, is not so eager to leave the Phils for the Chicago Cubs, as one might expect. While the Phils do not rate with the Baby Bears in pennant potentialities, Chuck likes their little park for batting and fielding purposes.

HARD LUCK.

Paul Derringer, of the Cincinnati Reds, should put in his bid for the hard luck pitching championship of the year. Fourteen of his 20 defeats have been by the margin of two runs or less.

TWELVE BOSSES.

Roger Peckinpaugh, deposed earlier this season as pilot of the Cleveland Indians, played under 12 managers—Jim Maguire, Walter McCreedie, Harry Davis, Joe Birmingham, Frank L. Chance, Bill Donovan, Miller Huggins, Everett Scott, Donie Bush, Clyde Milan, Bucky Harris and Ray Schalk.

Players on 'Strike,' Pine Bluff Quits

PINE BLUFF, Ark., Aug. 26.—(AP) Failing to receive their monthly salary checks due today the 14 players on the Pine Bluff team of the Dixie baseball league refused to leave for their next game with Tyler, Texas, and officials disbanded the club.

The club has been in financial difficulties a large part of the season, which got under way late.

The players had expected the checks would not be forthcoming today and thus were prepared for their strike. Notified by club officials that they could not be paid, the players refused to entrain for Tyler.

President R. H. Williams then formally disbanded the club effectice immediately. Buddy Tanner is manager of the club.

DALLAS, Texas, Aug. 22.—(AP)—J. Alvin Gardner, president of the Dixie league, said today that only five more games remained on the league schedule and that the remaining seven teams would finish the season without Pine Bluff, whose team was disbanded.

Pine Bluff's games will be canceled and therefore will not be computed in the standing.

The team started the season at Waco but was transferred to the Arkansas city because of financial difficulties.

Football at Marist Will Start Today

Marist College football candidates will assemble at 9 o'clock this morning at the school in the first practice of the season, with Coach Louie Van Houten in charge.

Morning workouts will continue until after the opening of school, after which rough scrimmages will start.

FREDERICK IMPROVES.

Johnny Frederick, of the Brooklyn Dodgers, is again hitting 'em into the right field and his batting average has improved. Early this season Frederick pulled them into the left side with not-so-good results.

TWOSOMES.

Two Davises, George and Virgil; two Jacksons, Travis and John, and two Moores, Austin and Joe, sometimes appear in the box score when the New York Giants play the Philadelphia Nationals.

HITS TWIN BILLS.

Many double-headers are bad, believes Pie Traynor, Pittsburgh third baseman, because they dull the enthusiasm of the players, wear out the old-timers prematurely and put too great a strain on youngsters.

LOTT, PARTNER LOSE DOUBLES IN FIRST ROUND

Favorites Advance in National Tournament at Chestnut Hills.

By Frank Murphy,

United Press Staff Correspondent.

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass., Aug. 22. — (UP) — Paced by Ellsworth Vines and Keith Gledhill, of California, the defending titlists, the 12 American and foreign seeded teams swept through the opening round of the national doubles tennis championship today.

The favored dozen combinations lost only five sets among them as the strong field was reduced to an even 16 teams. The only really outstanding pair to drop a set where the veteran George Lott, of Chicago, and lanky Lester Stoeffen, of Los Angeles, third seeded Americans, who eliminated Ellsworth Davenport Jr. and Robert Kellehej, of New York, 6-4, 3-6, 6-4, 7-5.

WIN BY DEFAULT.

The quickest and easiest route into the second round was found by the top-seeded invading team, Jack Crawford and Vivian McGrath, of Australia, who won through the default of Thamos Flynn, of Astoria, N. Y., and John Ray, of Boston. The Australians took advantage of the break by practicing at singles.

Vines, who is interested chiefly in regaining his lost touch before starting defense of his American singles championship at Forest Hills two weeks from today, played Lackadaisical tennis as he and Gledhill toyed with two young Portsmouth, N. H., naval lieutenants, James M. Farrin and G. W. Smith, to win by scores of 6-4, 6-1, 6-3. The grass was soggy after yesterday's rains and the Vines-Gledhill team as well as other leading combinations took no chances with the uncertain footing.

The most decisive victory of the day was hung up by the American internationalists, Wilmer Allison, of Austin, Texas, and John Van Ryn, of Philadelphia, who put out E. B. Benedict and D. P. Robinson, local players, 6-1, 6-1, 6-1. Fred Perry, England's No. 1 man, and his countryman, F. H. D. Wilde, likewise had an easy time in disposing of Frank Bowden and Arnold Bruneau, of New York, 6-4, 6-0, 6-4.

EXTENDED.

England's second-string team, H. G. N. Lee and Edward Avorx, were extended by Hobart Hyde and John Gow, of Hartford, Conn., but won by scores of 6-4, 3-6, 13-11, 8-6. The second Australian team of Adrian Quist and Don Turnbull eliminated R. S. and A. T. Turner, of Boston, 6-2, 6-3, 6-1.

Frank Shields, of New York, and Frank Parker, of Milwaukee, defeated E. and H. Fuller, of Salem, Mass., 6-2, 6-2, 7-5. Berkeley Bell, of New York, and Gregory Mangin, of Newark, defeated Platt Spencer and A. S. D'Arcy, of Boston, 6-3, 6-2, 7-5; Jack Tidball, of Hollywood, and Gene Mako, of Los Angeles, defeated Malcolm Hill and Sam Fitch, of Boston, 2-6, 6-4, 6-1, 3-6, 6-2, and Cliff Sutter of New Orleans, with Dr. Eugene McAuliff, of Yonkers, N. Y., defeated J. B. Fenno and T. E. Jansen Jr., of Boston, 4-6, 6-4, 8-6, 6-2.

The feature match tomorrow will bring together Australia's Crawford-McGrath team and the fifth-seeded Americans, Bell and Mangin. Perry and Wilde, of England, also will have a stiff battle on their hands, as they face Sutter and McAuliff.

BOWLING

Last night marked the end of the Summer Commercial Duckpin league for 1933. The individual awards were made to the following: A. J. Sossong, high average for the season; Cliff Dennis, high game for the season, 157, and Walter Lawson, high set, 410.

The team awards were made to the following teams: The Tidwell Company team, first place; the Gran-Dads, second place; the East Lake team, third place, and the Davison-Paxon team, fourth place. The Blick's Bowling Center team came in fifth, and the American Can Company was sixth.

HORSE SHOW.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—(AP)—The National Horse Show Association will celebrate its 50th anniversary with a golden jubilee show in Madison Square Garden November 8-14, which it expects to be "bigger and better than ever." Competition among international military jumping teams will be held every night, climaxed by the award of the championship cup donated by J. Spencer Weed, president of the association.

Elgin Race Attracts De Palma

ELGIN, Ill., Aug. 22.—(AP)—Ralph De Palma, one of the most famous of race drivers, will return to competition in the revival of the Elgin national road race Saturday afternoon.

In the morning 11 drivers will engage in a stock car race at 203 miles, with $3,750 in prize money to be distributed.

Besides De Palma, in the racing car division, the entry list includes: Fred Frame, Los Angeles; Wilbur Shaw, Indianapolis; Lou Moore, Indianapolis; Russell Snowberger, Philadelphia; Phil Shafer, Des Moines, Iowa; Bill Cummings, Indianapolis; Walter Zale, Chicago; Dave Evans, Indianapolis; William (Shorty) Cantlon, Detroit; Joe Russo, Indianapolis; Frank Brisko, Milwaukee; J. W. Kleinschmidt, Indianapolis; H. M. MEMPHIS, Tenn., Aug. 22.—(AP)—Bucky Moore, former star halfback of Loyola University and a member of the Chicago Cardinals professional football team, said today that he would join the Pittsburgh Pirates this year. Moore, whose home is in McComb, Miss., is here on a brief vacation. He will leave for Pittsburgh in a few days, he said, stopping first at Chicago.

CRACKER CLUB PLANS TRADES TO 'REORGANIZE'

Bonowitz, Phillips and Susko Among Those Slated To Go.

By Ralph McGill.

While owners of the Atlanta baseball club are maintaining a discreet silence, there seems to be no doubt but that quite a few members of the present club will be traded off as quickly as possible.

Joe Bonowitz, who was traded off by Chattanooga last winter, is due to be traded off to someone else's outfield. Eddie Phillips, who was expected to be the league's leading catcher, has seen a recruit step in and do most of the catching since July, and he, too, is to be traded or sold. Pete Susko, the first sacker, is another slated for the trading marts.

And there are others who will be tossed in with that group as boot. Very few of the present outfit will return in 1934. Very, very few.

The line-up, which was assembled to start the season was regarded as a sure-fire first division club. But somewhere along the route it lost all its punch and shortly after that lost all its enthusiasm. A few individuals kept going, but as a unit the Crackers were pretty awful.

The owners seem to know what happened and are going to work trying to get a new line-up for next season. And as soon as the trading season opens they will be in there with a lot of stuff which they will be willing to swap off for one or two baseball players.

The Crackers are off today, due to some doubling up of games, but on Thursday night will open up with the first night double-header of the year here. The Barons will be opponents on that evening.

The Barons play on Friday and on Saturday a single game with Chattanooga is scheduled to fill out the week.

A few rookies are to be tried out this month and next as the season closes. But it is not likely that any radical measures will be attempted, the case being hopeless.

Reports have it that Charley Moore, deposed manager, who was a victim of circumstances more than anything else, is to catch on with Brooklyn again next fall as manager of one of the farm teams.

Two Train-Auto Collisions Leave 12 Dead, One Dying

By the Associated Press.

Twelve persons were killed and another was injured seriously in two train-automobile accidents yesterday.

Seven men and boys were injured fatally at Lumberton, N. C., when their truck crashed into a Seaboard Air Line pasenger train at a grade crossing.

Three women and two children were killed near Chesterton, Indiana, when a New York Central mail train demolished their automobile. All the persons killed in the Indiana accident were believed from Canada.

Victims of the Lumberton tragedy were North Carolinans.

Furnie Davenport, 58-year-old farmer who suffered internal injuries, was reported in a dying condition in Lumberton, N. C., last night. Three of his sons, Louis, 32; Jesse, 26, and Wesley, 13, were killed outright.

Burchard Smith, 23, and his brother, Walter, 20; Clyde Taylor, 12, and Dick Harper, 19, also were killed.

The others injured in calorina were Millard Davenport, 61, brother of Furnie, cut and bruised; Zeb Brown, 27, scalp wound and broken left arm; Haywood Smith, 27, lacerations of the face and bruised leg, and Woodrow Taylor, 20, brother of Clyde, head injury, probable fracture of the skull. All are expected to recover.

Haywood Smith, brother of Burchard and Walter, was driving the truck. All those in the party lived near Deep Run, little community 10 miles from Kinston in Lenoir county.

They started out at dawn yesterday from their homes with a load of tobacco, planning to sell it on the market at Fairmont, N. C.

Smith said he did not see the train, which was No. 14, running from Hamlet to Wilmington, until a moment before the crash.

"The first time I glimpsed the train it looked like the radiator of the truck was going right into the side of it," he said.

Smith explained he had looked away from the road for a moment at a negro who was waving violently at the truck. The negro, who noted the impending crash, was waving in an attempt to halt the truck, but Smith failed to understand his motions.

Several small houses by the track obstructed the truck driver's view.

From papers and a newspaper clipping found among the effects of the Chesterton (Ind.) victims police identified them as Christina MacDonald, of Medicine Hat; her sister, Mary, of Edson, Alberta; Mrs. A. F. Masson, Ponoka, Alberta, and her two children, a boy about 8 and a girl about 10.

Police said the automobile apparently halted at the grade crossing two miles west of Chesterton to let a freight pass and then drove directly into the path of the mail train speeding in the opposite direction. The bodies and wreckage were strewn along the right-of-way for a quarter of a mile.

In the baggage, Coroner Carl Davis, of Porter county, found a newspaper clipping that told of the start of the vacation trip by Mrs. Masson and her sisters. The clipping said they planned to visit relatives in Antionish, N. S., their former home.

Teachers certificates and contracts showed that Mary MacDonald planned to teach this year at Ponoka and her sister at Edson.

The bodies were brought to a mortuary in Chesterton and the coroner's office tried to reach Mrs. Masson's husband in Canada by telegram.

DRIVER OF DEATH TRUCK PLACED UNDER ARREST

LUMBERTON, N. C., Aug. 22.—(UP)—Haywood Smith, 26, driver of the truck in which seven farmer-passengers were killed by a train today, was placed under arrest tonight and ordered to appear at an inquest before Coroner D. W. Biggs tomorrow.

Smith, confined to Baker Sanatorium with slight injuries, was not placed under guard or bond. His condition will permit attendance at the inquest, requested by Solicitor T. A. McNeill, who returned from superior court at Raeford tonight.

3.2 Beer May Be Sold At Army Posts, Ruling

Beer may be sold and consumed at Fort McPherson, Fort Oglethorpe, Fort Benning and on all other government property without fear of interference from Georgia law, according to the opinion of state officials Tuesday. State laws do not apply to any government-owned property, they said.

At Fort Riley and Fort Leavenworth genuine suds are sold, and the Kansas attorney-general ruled that state law had no jurisdiction on government reservations.

The question as to whether the 3.2 could be ladled out at the Georgia forts has been a subject of much discussion at military quarters, nothing but soft drinks being sold there now. In several other dry states beer is allowed to be sold and consumed on the reservation.

FOLLOW THE Bible Game

$1,800 IN CASH PRIZES!

By THE BIBLE GAME EDITOR.

Here's an encouraging thought for Bible Game entrants who have experienced difficulty in solving one or more of the pictures: The rules do not require readers to send in "perfect" sets in order to win a prize. The awards will be made to those who make up the "nearest-perfect" sets, in the event no "perfect" sets are submitted. Some of the pictures of the series have been made hard to unravel, to make competition keener, but they should not be regarded as insurmountable obstacles.

The total amount of the prize money destined to pass into the hands of Bible Game followers is $1,800. The first prize alone is $1,000—surely most generous compensation for a few hours of enjoyable work.

Non-Subscribers Eligible.

Q. I am not a subscriber to The Atlanta Constitution. Does this exclude me from the Bible Game? A. P. V., Columbus, Ga.

Janet Snowden, Oil Heiress, Quits Prince After Five Days

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—(AP)—The New York American says that the five-day-old honeymoon of the former Janet Snowden, heiress to oil millions, and Prince Don Caravita, of Italy, ended in a separation.

The newspaper quotes the princess as saying she married the nobleman "for spite, not for love." The couple eloped recently.

"I surely did as foolish an act as a girl could do. I'm heartbroken with grief. I am preparing to consult my attorneys so I can obtain an annulment.

"If that is impossible, I will seek a divorce. The prince is a nice enough fellow but I do not love him and cannot learn. I am through with him forever."

At the home of Prince and Princess Rospiliosi, Prince Don Caravita said he was confident his wife would return to him. He said they had not quarreled.

The Princess Caravita is a sister of Princess Rospiliosi. Princess Carvita disclosed she had wired the news of her separation to her mother in Poland Springs.

The American quotes Princess Caravita as saying she was only 19 years old and not 25 as set forth in her marriage license.

Asked to explain her reference to the "spite" marriage, she is quoted as replying:

"The truth is I love another man. I have loved him for years. He is older than I am and last week I learned his affections have turned toward another woman."

She is quoted as saying she learned of this while visiting her sister and her husband at their home. The princes have been friends since childhood.

"I felt like a girl who has suddenly come out of a wild dream. I feel frightened and ashamed, for letting jealousy and spite prompt me to a loveless marriage."

Concerning grounds for annulment, she is quoted:

"Our marriage license contained false entries. I said I was 25. Actually I am a minor, only 19. Certainly there is no hope of reconciliation. I'll never go back to the prince."

The young couple met two weeks ago for the first time, The American says, when the prince arrived from Italy on the liner Rex.
